SANCTIONS DEBATE AT OTTAWA POSTPONED

DISTILLERS IN CANADA TO PAY U.S. GREAT SUM

Montreal Hears $45,000,000 Is Total of Settlement of U.S. Claims Against Producers in Eastern Part of Dominion for Duties on Liquor Which Found Its Way Into Republic During Prohibition

Associated Press

Washington, May 13.—Treasury officials said today an agreement had been reached with large distillers of Canadian liquor on United States claims for tariff duties on liquor smuggled into this country during prohibition. Details of the agreement have not been made public, but it was reported the Canadian distillers will pay to this country many millions in duties.

The department's original claim was for more than $100,000,000, but it was understood the settlement was for considerably less.

Settlement was attributed to congressional consideration of legislation designed to prohibit further importations of liquor from distillers whose product was smuggled into this country during prohibition.

As a result of the settlement officials said the Treasury will not press for the enactment of the bill. They said no official announcement regarding the settlement would be made today.

NEGOTIATIONS CARRIED ON

The reported settlement followed active negotiations during the last fortnight between representatives of Canadian distillers and the United States Treasury, State and Justice Departments.

Hearings on the liquor tax administration bill developed that United States claims for customs duties and taxes arising out of the bringing into the United States whisky, wine and beer during prohibition, principally from Canada, totaled about $100,000,000.

CALLS ONLY MARKET

In the case of Canadian imports, it was stated the only market Canadians had for their stocks of American-type whisky was in the United States. Without any restriction, it was claimed this country was affording to Canadian distillers the means of disposing of their otherwise unsalable stocks.

The section of the liquor tax administration bill which would have kept out imports was predicted on (Turn to Page 6, Col. 1)

SHINGLE WAGES TO BE STUDIED

Government Takes Hand in One Phase of Lumber Strike

Moving to solve one of the difficulties contributing to the strike in British Columbia shingle mills, Hon. George S. Pearson, Minister of Labor, announced today that departmental experts will start tomorrow on an investigation of the wage situation in the shingle industry.

This is an outcome of discussions held by the minister with both sides. It is claimed that conditions in the shingle market are made unstable by piece-working contracting, mainly by Orientals, which results in breaking of the price and consequent disturbance in working hours and wages in the industry generally.

Adam Bell, chairman of the Board of Industrial Relations, and J. Ward Bell and Charles Pearson, experts on lumbering conditions, will conduct the survey.

While the government is intervening in this phase of the shingle mill strike, a deadlock exists as far as the claim of the men for recognition of the new Lumber and Sawmill Workers Union, Mr. Pearson said.

A comparatively small group of the workers are supporting the union (Turn to Page 12, Col. 5)

STRIKE RIOTS IN ATHENS TODAY

Associated Press

Athens, May 13.—Strikers today stoned street cars and smashed windows on the main streets of Athens in scattered disturbances connected with the twenty-four-hour general strike called last night.

The strike, in protest against recent clashes between troops and striking tobacco workers, resulted in additional clashes at Piræus, seaport of Athens.

DRAEGERMAN LOSES HIS LIFE

J. Campbell, Who Helped Rescue Robertson and Scadding, Is Killed in Nova Scotia Coal Mine

Canadian Press

Stellarton, N.C., May 13.—Joe Campbell, one of the Stellarton Draegermen who helped rescue Dr. D. E. Robertson and Alfred Scadding from the Moose River Gold Mine, was killed today in the MacGregor shaft at Stellarton.

Campbell was killed on the 400-foot level of the coal mine, 200 feet from the shaft, when he stepped in front of a string of loaded coal cars returning to the surface.

Campbell was one of five miners on a fishing trip when they heard of the imprisonment of the Toronto men in the gold mine. They immediately abandoned their trip and volunteered their services in the rescue.

Along with forty other miners and Draegermen, Campbell worked in the dangerous Reynolds shaft, through which Robertson and Scadding and the body of Herman H. Magill were brought to the surface after ten days' entombment.

Great Majority In Commons For Budget Proposals

No Early Cut In Relief Grants

B.C. Will Receive $223,125 From Ottawa For Each of May and June

British Columbia's relief grants from the federal government for May and June will be $223,125 each month, the same as for April, as a result of the federal decision to continue payments for those two months on the same basis. The provincial authorities have been so advised.

From last fall up to the beginning of April, British Columbia received $262,500 a month, but a 15 per cent cut was then made on the assumption that relief rolls would be lower and the costs less.

OTTAWA STATEMENT

Ottawa, May 13.—Grants in aid of unemployment relief by the Dominion Government to the provinces will be continued for the months of May and June at the same rates as were in effect in April. Hon. Norman Rogers, Minister of Labor, announced yesterday evening. This means the Dominion will pay the provinces approximately $2,606,000 a month for the two months. (Turn to Page 6, Col. 1)

Social Credit Motion Rejected By 198-16 and C.C.F. By 210-8, and House Approves Government's Plans Without Division

Ottawa, May 13.—With the budget passed, the Commons this afternoon turned its attention to the proposal to establish Dominion-provincial loan councils.

The budget, the Liberals' first since they returned to power last October, was approved when the government's motion was passed without a recorded vote after the C.C.F. and Social Credit amendments had been defeated by enormous majorities.

The Conservatives joined with the Liberals on the divisions. The Social Credit subamendment to the budget motion was turned back 198-16 with every party in the House pitted against the Alberta-Saskatchewan group of Douglas adherents.

VOTE WAS 210 TO 8

Then came the C.C.F. amendment and it went down to a more inglorious defeat, 210-8. Liberals, Conservatives and Social Crediters united to swamp it while the C.C.F. listed the vote of Miss Agnes MacPhail, (Turn to Page 6, Col. 3)

Four Victims of Night Club Panic

San Francisco, May 13.—Two men and two women were killed early today when the toe of a torch dancer transformed a gay flaming hall of horror.

The hat check girl was trampled to death as the fifty patrons stampeded from the lone exit from the Shamrock Club in the hotel district of downtown San Francisco. The other three died of suffocation in the closed second floor room.

Nine were injured, three of them so seriously they were kept at the emergency hospital where all were treated.

Those who lost their lives were: Joe Dickinson, check girl, San Francisco; Mrs. Elsie Marler, thirty-two, of Petaluma, Cal., whose husband formerly was part owner of the Shamrock Club; (Turn to Page 12, Col. 6)

Cromie Last Rites Thursday

Funeral of Late Publisher Will Be Held in Vancouver Tomorrow

Canadian Press
Vancouver, May 13.—Funeral service for the late Robert J. Cromie will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday at Christ Church Cathedral. Mr. Cromie, publisher of the Vancouver Sun, died suddenly in Victoria Monday.

Archbishop A. U. de Pency will conduct the service, assisted by Dean Ramsey Armitage.

From the cathedral the body will be taken to the Mountain View Cemetery, where it will be cremated. The pallbearers will be W. C. Woodward, F. J. Bossons, Knox Walker, Victor MacLean, G. L. Fraser and F. J. Salter.

Flags will be flown at half-mast at the Ballantyne and Lapointe piers and at the head office of the Board of Harbor Commissioners on Thursday.

Business offices of The Sun will close from 1 to 4 p.m., but all editions of the paper will appear as usual.

PEACEFUL DEATH

Mr. Cromie died peacefully from a cardiac attack, friends who accompanied the body from Victoria said today. He had gone to Victoria Friday night for a rest and to fill a speaking engagement on Monday.

Not feeling well on Sunday, he cancelled the engagement. Friends who went to his room on Monday found him sleeping peacefully. Returning later, they noticed his breathing was unnatural. A physician was summoned, but he died without regaining consciousness.

NEW HOSPITAL WING MOOTED

Suggestion Advanced For Care of Isolation Cases at Jubilee

Possibility of adding a new wing to the Jubilee Hospital was discussed at a meeting today of representatives of the Victoria medical fraternity, the executive of the hospital, Dr. H. E. Young, provincial health officer, Hon. G. M. Weir, provincial secretary, and Dr. Richard Felton, city health officer.

The proposal was advanced with a view to establishing better accommodation for isolation cases for Greater Victoria.

For several years, Dr. Felton has expressed certain dissatisfaction with the excessive costs entailed through the existing Isolation Hospital and has advocated a system which would centralize care of the isolation cases on a more efficient and economical basis.

Nothing of a definite nature was done at the meeting today, but several suggestions were advanced to provide better facilities for the care of communicable disease cases. Among the suggestions advanced was that of establishing a new wing.

Financing of such a project was not given any definite consideration.

Man Is Reported Held in Dungeon

Lawyer Says T. H. Robinson Abused By U.S. Agents at Louisville, Ky.

Associated Press
Nashville, Tenn., May 13.—Monte S. Ross, Nashville attorney, said today he would not defend Thomas H. Robinson Jr., kidnapper of Mrs. Speed Stoll, Louisville, Kentucky society matron.

Previously, the attorney had said Robinson was being held in a "dungeon" at Louisville, "and I am perfectly aware of what they are doing to him."

A United States Department of Justice agent at Louisville quoted Robinson as saying he was willing to plead guilty provided Ross "will let me."

"I do not believe any defendant, no matter what offence is charged, should be permitted to plead guilty before consulting competent legal advisers," Ross said.

LIFE SENTENCE

O. C. Dewey, in charge of the Louisville office of the Department of Justice, said Robinson told him that since he already had confessed the kidnapping he might as well plead guilty. Dewey did not reveal whether the plea would be conditional on a life sentence.

Bennett Supports Attitude of Prime Minister, Saying He Has Confidence in His Judgment; J. S. Woodsworth Believes League's Acts and Canada's Position Regarding Britain's Course Should Be Debated at Once

Canadian Press

Ottawa, May 13.—Prime Minister King refused this afternoon in the House to comment or to be drawn into a discussion on sanctions against Italy.

J. S. Woodsworth, C.C.F. leader, asked a series of questions of Mr. King and finally began a speech declaring it a matter of urgent importance.

Support of Mr. King's attitude came from Conservative Leader Bennett, who said it was the duty of the Premier, who had more information than the members, to determine the time for a discussion of the League.

Mr. Woodsworth asked whether Canada had voted for the continuance of sanctions at the recent League Council session at Geneva.

Mr. King replied Canada was not a member of the League Council and so had no vote.

Annexation Is Not Recognized

Britain Not Viewing Ethiopia As Part of Italy, Commons Told

By GEORGE HANDLETON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

London, May 13.—The government was bombarded at question time in the House of Commons today with questions about Ethiopia.

Lieut.-Commander R. T. H. Fletcher, Labor, demanded to know what was the diplomatic status of the British mission in Ethiopia. "Does the government still regard it as accredited to the Ethiopian government?" he asked.

NO RECOGNITION

Prime Minister Baldwin was definite there had been no British recognition of the Italian annexation. The government, he said, had received from the Italian ambassador in London (Dino Grandi) a copy of Premier Mussolini's decree that Italy had (Turn to Page 6, Col. 2)

"What is the attitude of Canada to sanctions against Italy?" asked Mr. Woodsworth.

Mr. King said there would be an opportunity to discuss that when the League of Nations estimate came up later in the session.

The Winnipeg member, a consistent pacifist, protested against delay. He said he wanted a full discussion of the matter in the near future. The question was urgent and should not be delayed by a "pussy-footing" attitude.

"The Prime Minister has apparently determined to give this House no information as to the attitude of the government at this very important crisis in the world's history," he declared.

Canada was a member of the League, but it now appeared the League had failed diamally. It had fallen in the South American troubles and its most spectacular failure was in Ethiopia.

"In Canada to go on as a member of a League, which offers no security to this country?" Mr. Woodsworth asked. "This gives rise to another question as to Canada's attitude towards Great Britain. In Great Britain to speak for Canada in world affairs and are we to be bound by undertakings in which we have no say, perhaps even be asked to con- (Turn to Page 6, Col. 3)

London, May 23.—Alfred Bates, Fleet Street advertising agency founder who has been described as an "old friend of R. Hon. J. H. Thomas, Colonial Secretary, was asked point blank in court today if the Secretary had disclosed the contents of the British budget to him.

"Certainly not," Bates replied. Bates had taken out budget insurance through Leslie Thomas, stockbroker son of the cabinet member, prior to the official announcement of the budget.

Emperor Says He Will Ask Council to Hear His Argument Against Italy in June; New Government Formed in Ethiopia

Jerusalem, May 13.—Haile Selassie said in an interview today he would go to Geneva and London shortly, and added he would strive "to the very end" to free Ethiopia from Italian domination.

The Negus told Reuters he would go to Geneva to plead his country's cause at the next meeting of the Council, on June 15, and later go to London.

"Our eyes are always turned to the League, in which our faith persists, despite what has happened," the Negus declared.

LEAGUE SESSION JUNE 15

Associated Press
Geneva, May 13.—In a private session, the League of Nations Council today decided to hold its special session June 15, instead of June 18, as planned yesterday, and to place on the agenda for the meeting discussions of the Italo-Ethiopian situation, the Locarno treaty, the slavery question, and the problem of placing contested Assyrians in Iraq and other countries. Admiral Nagano said Japan's navy was about 80 per cent as strong as that of the United States, but that, unless a new construction programme was undertaken soon, it would fall to 55 per cent of the American strength by 1941.

China-Manchukuo Train Agreement

Canadian Press
Peiping, China, May 13.—Though the Chinese Nationalist government at Nanking does not recognize the Manchukuo empire, Nanking's railways will hereafter trade tonnage with Manchukuo-owned lines. A through freight agreement by the South Manchuria Railway, the Manchukuo state railways and the Peiping-Shanhai Railway went into effect this month following signing by the Hopei-Chanhar political council. This has been sought by Japanese for more than twenty years. Since the Peiping-Shanhai line is Chinese government-owned, there will be through freight traffic from all parts of Manchuria to all parts of China. Farmers of Sweden are organizing in groups of about 100 to obtain electricity from the government. Gold mined in the Transvaal in January was valued at $32,460,000.

FAVORS TAX ON INTEREST

H. O. Haslam Says Social Credit Plan Would Reap Big Sum

Canadian Press
Lethbridge, Alta., May 13.—"I do not see eye-to-eye with Premier Aberhart on taxation matters and I believe interest should be taxed," declared H. O. Haslam, M.P.P. for Nanton-Clareholm, here yesterday. Speaking at Nanton last week, Mr. Haslam declared the Alberta government was planning a tax on interest which would yield the province $25,000,000 annually from which "a reasonable Social Credit dividend" could be paid.

Yesterday the Nanton-Clareholm Social Credit member said the matter had been discussed among members of the Legislature and there is "a small body of members in agreement with my proposal."

"Of course," he added, "it is up to the Premier, but I think we'll have to come to it."

Mr. Haslam declared such a tax was the way to pay the basic dividend and said "if I have any influence" this interest tax proposal would be introduced at the next session of the Alberta Legislature.

In Calgary last week Premier Aberhart said no such proposal had ever been discussed by the government.

British Government Has Answer To Italian Accusation Regarding Ethiopia

Associated Press
London, May 13.—The government, it was intimated authoritatively today, intends to make a complete answer to renewed Italian charges concerning the supply of dumdum bullets to Ethiopian forces.

The answer, it was said, will deal with a communication understood to have been given the League of Nations by Italy yesterday.

This communication was understood to accuse Great Britain and the Ethiopian legation in London of being jointly connected with a supply of dumdum bullets to Ethiopian forces.

An authoritative source intimated Great Britain would dispose of Italy's charges, effectively, saying: "The British government has a very good and complete answer."

Common Cold Carriers Traced

American Medical Association Is Told How Epidemics Spread

By HOWARD H. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Editor
Kansas City, Mo., May 13.—The human "carrier" of the common cold, the agency probably responsible for epidemics of colds, has been found in the victims of chronic sinus trouble.

This medically new idea which explains many of the familiar experiences of catching colds in subways and crowds and even in surroundings apparently "sanitary" was put forward by Edward C. Sewall, M.C., of San Francisco, before the American Medical Association here today. Chronic infection of the sinuses, he said, is the reservoir from which epidemics of common colds arise. He explained that repeatedly colds gradually cause the sinus membrane to thicken. If this thickened membrane becomes diseased the common cold infection then tends to become chronic.

He cited also experience to show that colds started by these "carriers" sometimes act like forest fires which get worse as they spread. The colds become more virulent as the virus spreads among fresh material.

OTTAWA RENEWS MANITOBA LOANS

Canadian Press
Ottawa, May 13.—Loans of the Dominion to Manitoba which have matured recently or will mature within a short time, will be consolidated into one amount and renewed until June 15, 1937. An order-in-council tabled in the Commons yesterday provides for renewal of these loans, which total $4,712,880. The Dominion also renewed for one year its guarantee of Manitoba treasury bills totaling $5,974,037, which matured at the beginning of this month.

GROWERS WANT GREATER RETURNS

Associated Press
Yakima, Wash., May 13.—Yakima fruit men expressed themselves today as more concerned over greater returns to the growers than over whether pears are canned in the United States or Canada.

E. M. Burns, Portland, secretary of the Northwest Cannery Association, asked opinions on the proposed freight rate cut on cannery pears to eastern Canada. He contended loss of Northwest payoffs would result. Higher return for the growers was of greater value to the community than payoffs, one grower said. Another expressed the belief a Canadian outlet might stabilize pear prices.

Fire in Seattle Apartment House

Seattle, May 13.—Fifty apartment house occupants were routed from beds by an early morning fire on First Hill here yesterday.

Battalion Chief Gordon W. Martin said Ole Storsfold, forty-five, fisherman, barely escaped with his life when the blaze broke out in a davenport and swept his room. The fire department estimated the damage at $550, and blamed it on a cigarette.

POPE VOICES PEACE HOPES

Prays End of Ethiopian War Will Be Prelude to True European Settlement

Vatican City, May 13.—Pope Pius yesterday expressed the fervent hope the end of the Italo-Ethiopian war would be "a prelude to true European and world peace."

Inaugurating the World Exposition of the Catholic Press before thousands of spectators, His Holiness remarked that the opening coincided with the "triumphant news of a great and good people."

The pontiff also spoke against Communism, as he did on Monday, saying it "ambushes individual dignity, the sanctity of the family order, the security of the civil consortium and, above all, religion."

He mentioned the development of Communism in Russia, Mexico, Spain, Uruguay and Brazil saying it had been promoted in these countries by propaganda which spared nothing.

CONDENNS NEO-PAGANISM
The Pope spoke against what he called "neo-paganism," with which, he said, "immorality so easily and almost inevitably allies itself although, perhaps, under the guise of refined material civilization."

The pontiff blessed the press exposition from his throne in the Pine Cone Court.

Catholic newspaper activity in 112 countries was on display at the exposition, housed in the steel-framed temporary building. Only Germany and Russia among the world's principal nations were not represented. Vatican sources said Chancellor Hitler disapproved German participation.

The Pope in his address drew a clear line between the church and state and charged the state is encroaching on the church's domain.

Associated Press
Hichin, Hertfordshire, Eng., May 13.—The Bishop of St. Alban's has criticized Pope Pius for his failure to attack Premier Mussolini's "grab" of Ethiopia.

The Church of England bishop, addressing a diocesan conference, said the world "looked in vain for any outspoken denunciations of Italy's criminal conduct from the head of the largest Christian communion in the world, whose seat of government is at Rome and who is claimed to be the Vicar of Christ on earth."

Mr. Livett will leave immediately for Washington to confer with John L. Lewis, international president, and when he returns a referendum of the workers will be taken for approval of the amalgamation plan.

Associated Press
Vilna, Poland, May 13.—All Poland paused yesterday as the heart of the late Marshal Joseph Pilsudski was buried at the foot of his mother's coffin in the military cemetery. Fifty special trains brought visitors here on this first anniversary of the Polish hero's death.

The urn was transported in state to the military cemetery together with the coffin, containing his mother's body, which had been temporarily interred at the Sainte Therese Church here.

In the presence of President Moscicki, the entire cabinet, General Rydz Smigly, inspector-general of the Polish army, and other officials, the final burial service was read.

Medical Men In Unusual Scene

At Kansas City U.S. Association Makes Dr. J. T. Mason, Ill in Seattle, President

Associated Press
Kansas City, May 13.—An unusual thing known as "procedure" was cast aside when 6,000 leading medical men paid tribute to their association president—critically ill and 2,000 miles away. He was installed yesterday on the assurance of a hospital bulletin he would live twenty-four hours more.

In Seattle, Dr. J. Tate Mason, fifty-three, listened by radio yesterday to the convention of the American Medical Association. He was its president-elect, but was unable to attend the convention because a blood clot had necessitated the amputation of his left leg.

DECISION MADE

The time came for the doctors to decide whether he should be installed. Dr. Edward M. Pallette of Los Angeles arose and spoke: "I move Dr. Mason be installed if he is alive tonight."

Another report arrived from his bedside. Gangrene had appeared in the other leg. "They fear he may not live through the day."

One after another arose in favor of Dr. Pallette's motion. The last report from Seattle said Dr. Mason would live at least another day, and the motion was brought to a vote.

There was a chorus of "ayes," then a wave of applause. "Fine," said Dr. Mason, when he heard the news.

NO MENDICANT

WHILE IN OTTAWA RECENTLY PREMIER Pattullo took the opportunity to tell the east a few facts about British Columbia. "Let people get it out of their heads that we are mendicants," Mr. Pattullo said. It is not easy, however, to get that idea out of many heads in the east, simply because the government of British Columbia has borrowed large sums there in the last twenty-five years, but fortunately Mr. Pattullo is able to back his words with action. On the fifteenth day of this month his government will pay off a loan of $3,500,000 in cash, out of revenue, without the use of sinking funds—an accomplishment not equalled by any other province, so far as we know, in recent years.

That should indicate in a general way to the east that British Columbia is not a mendicant asking for crumbs from the rich men's tables down in Toronto and Montreal. But British Columbia, while paying its own way, still suffers from grave injustices within the framework of Confederation which must be adjusted. It is satisfactory to hear, therefore, that Mr. Pattullo has succeeded where all his predecessors have failed to secure at least preliminary consideration of these claims. The Dominion is going to appoint a commission to consider the inequalities of the Confederation pact as it applied to British Columbia, particularly in the payment of federal subsidies.

This arrangement is the first fruit of a new co-operative spirit between the province and the Dominion. In the last federal election campaign it was argued that Liberal provincial governments could co-operate most effectively with a Liberal government in Ottawa and events are confirming this expectation. It will be remembered, incidentally, that British Columbia got back its railway lands when we had Liberal governments in both capitals. We are confident that the same happy result will be achieved in the better terms question.

THE SECOND FIVE YEAR PLAN

BECAUSE OF THE U.S.S.R.'S SUCCESS with Stakhanov efficiency methods of production, the Soviet second Five Year Plan promises to be completed in four years, enabling the nation to attain a 'splendid isolation' with foreign trade at a minimum," according to Miss Harriet Moore, commenting upon Russian business trends in Pacific Affairs, quarterly of the Institute of Pacific Relations, published in New York.

Claiming that "today the economy of the U.S.S.R. is nearly balanced and its dependence on foreign trade is diminishing," the writer asserts that "the contracts of foreign engineers and technicians still in the U.S.S.R. are ceasing to call for payment in foreign currencies—a criterion of their necessity to the Soviet Union."

Machinery imports, we are told, are now less than one-tenth of what they were three years ago and the Soviets are producing every variety, though still not in sufficient quantity. Imports of wool, hides and livestock are rapidly decreasing, while the U.S.S.R. has already become practically self-sufficient in cotton, Miss Moore says, and continues:

"Every region is building up a balanced economy so that there will be no sections which can be designated as producing areas as opposed to consuming areas, or agricultural regions as opposed to purely industrial ones. In the Far East a new oil refinery is in operation, refining Sakhalin oil, and coal fields have been opened to provide fuel for local consumption. In Central Asia and Siberia near the cotton-production areas, the textile industry is rapidly expanding. Around the Dnieper power station in the Ukraine a whole series of industries is being established. On the other hand a limit has been put to the number of new factories which can be built in and around industrial centres such as Moscow and Leningrad, while agriculture is expanding in those regions."

"To the United States, the U.S.S.R. now says: 'You have more than twice as many miles of railway as I, but in airlines I am nearly up to you. I produce almost as much pig iron as you, though you still are ahead of me in steel and rolling mill products. In coal and oil you outdistance me, but I, too, have enough to export both. I still can not compete in the output of automobiles, but in making tractors and combines I surpass you. In general, we have the same crop area, and while you are more efficient in the production of wheat and sugar beets, I get more cotton per acre than you do.'

"In efficiency of production, both in agriculture and in industry, the Soviet Union is far behind the United States. This is largely due to the lack of trained personnel and to the inadequacy of transport. These weaknesses are well known to Soviet authorities and steps are being taken to rectify them."

DEALING IN SECURITIES

IN FEBRUARY, THE INTERNATIONAL trade in securities between Canada and other countries remained heavy, although there was some decline from the exceptional volume recorded in January. This reduction in trade during the month was in the sales to the United States and to Great Britain, the quantity of purchases remaining about the same as in January. Despite the decline in sales in February, a large net balance of sales continued to characterize the month's transactions. A net balance of sales was present in both the trade with the United States and with Great Britain. The decline in the international trade in securities during the month was in stocks as well as in bonds. This trade in securities between Canada and other countries was carried on through the medium of the investment dealers, stock exchanges, banks, United States branch houses, and other agencies.

In February, 1936, sales to the United States were $36,260,759 compared with $45,260,642 in January, and purchases from the United States were $28,329,794 compared with $28,974,654 in January. Sales to Great Britain were $5,993,537 in February and $11,112,761 in January, while purchases from Great Britain were $3,540,208 and $3,092,797 in these respective months. Total sales to all countries in the first two months of 1936 were $99,048,481, as compared with $36,910,780 in the same months of 1935 and $60,483,326 in 1934. Total purchases from all other countries in the first two months of each year were $64,596,819 in 1936, $41,047,233 in 1935, and $55,144,120 in 1934. It should be noted that sales of new issues of Canadian securities outside of Canada are not included in these figures, such as the new issue of Dominion of Canada bonds of $48,000,000 sold in January, 1936, in New York to a syndicate headed by the First Boston Corporation.

PAINTED EYES AT GENEVA

AT TIMES, THINGS MUST GET VERY dull in the Council of the League of Nations in Geneva, even when one of the members is in the act of swallowing up another, and the League's entire existence is at stake. Men who have sat about the council table year after year and heard the same speeches over and over again can be forgiven if they grow a little bored, even a little somnolent. Statesmen of the first rank have often done a considerable part of their sleeping in the British House of Commons.

The other day, however, the boredom of the council as it discussed the constitution of Danzig, was too much for Senor Quinones de Leon of Spain. When he observed that the entire council had fallen asleep, he felt that something must be done about it. His remedy would be painless, quick and effective. He suggested that the members should have eyes carefully painted upon their eyelids "so that the council's reputation for intelligent alertness at all times should not be compromised."

After what the League has been doing in the last few months, there will always remain the suspicion that, during the Ethiopian crisis, the council had already adopted Senor de Leon's proposal.

MR. ABERHART'S AMBITION

MR. ABERHART, OF ALBERTA, whose neighborly custom is to unburden his soul once a week to a radio microphone, has just unburdened himself of his secret thoughts about political office. He says he has no intention of staying in public life for long. He says he only wants to get his patented economic system established and the New Jerusalem of Social Credit in full working order and then he wants to retire to his high school and teach the young!

One term of office in Edmonton, Mr. Aberhart thinks, will be enough to finish the job. That is all he wants—one term, an ambition almost unique among prime ministers in this country. Somehow we feel confident that Mr. Aberhart's ambition is going to be gratified.

MINE DUST

ALTHOUGH EVERY MEANS IS TAKEN in modern mining practice to eliminate dust from the mine air, some dust will, of necessity, be present on certain occasions or in certain places. This dust may be relatively harmless to those breathing it, or it may be extremely dangerous, depending largely on the particular minerals present. It might be assumed that the dust would have the same mineral composition as the mill-feed obtained by crushing the ore, but that this is not necessarily the case is shown by experiments conducted by Professor T. L. Walker, University of Toronto, and described by him in a paper entitled "Determination of the Mineral Composition of Mine Dust by Means of X-rays," which he presented at the recent annual meeting of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy at Ottawa.

These analyses of mine dust and of mill feed from the same mine, indicate that certain minerals settle from the air more quickly than others, with the result that they form a smaller percentage of the dust than of the ore. This, says Professor Walker, is most marked in the case of quartz. Minerals with best cleavage concentrate in the dust. At his suggestion, experiments were undertaken by Professor G. L. Clark, University of Illinois, which have developed into an established method for determining the amount of quartz in mine dust by means of a study of X-ray diffraction patterns from dust, and of the densitometer curves prepared from dust. By this method, a mixture of crystalline substances may be analyzed, giving the per cent of each crystalline component. The accuracy of this method for the determination of quartz has been shown to be within 5 per cent of the quartz present. It is believed that this method will be of service in the study of dusts which give rise to silicosis.

THE WAY IS HARD
The Calgary Albertan

Of course, a good deal of Britain's national debt, like our own, has been built from extravagant follies of past years and a good deal of the burdensome new taxation, also like our own, is to pay for these. It is Britain's morning after and the headache is just as painful as ours. But they and we are learning that it is a via dolorosa that leads to the land of balanced budgets, yet it must be traveled.

THE REHABILITATION OF THE WEST
The Vancouver Province

The rehabilitation of the west is, of course, not a problem for the west alone. The mistakes in settlement were not mistakes of the west but of the Dominion, which had control of settlement until about five years ago. And, as Mr. Paul Sise of Montreal pointed out recently, even the mistakes which the westerners made themselves were made quite largely at the instance of eastern business men. It is not, however, wholly or even principally a matter of assessing blame. It is more important to find a remedy. And the remedy is vital for all Canada. As Sir Edward Beatty puts it: "Industrial capital and labor in this country can never, for long, earn profits or wages greatly out of proportion to the profits or wages of agriculture, capital or labor."

Twenty-five Years Ago To-day

May 13, 1911

(From The Times Files)

Although the estimates for the current year came within an ace of completion at last night's meeting of the City Council, they did not arrive at that happy position without bickering and a few unpleasant suggestions. The first brush took place between Mayor Morley and Alderman Ostell to increase the salary of Mr. Ostell, the city auditor, from $75 to $100 a month. Mayor Morley was after the scalp of that official and would surely have obtained it but for the spirited stand taken by the alderman named, along with Alderman H. M. Pullerton, on behalf of the prospective victim.

The drydock at Esquimalt will be constructed whether any of His Majesty's Canadian ships are built here or not. The plans of Messrs. Bullen and their partners in this enterprise, William Denny and Sons, the famous Dumbarton firm of ship-builders, are undisturbed, and the work will go ahead as contemplated under the Dominion subsidy which was recently granted by order-in-council.

Louisville, Ky., May 13.—The Kentucky Derby, one of the greatest turf classics of America, will be run this afternoon. The weather is clear and the track is fast. Probably greater horses have faced the starters in the Kentucky Derby, but not for years has so evenly balanced a field been entered. Ten horses are entered but more than eight will start. Gov. Gray and Capt. Jim Williams Getting have been made favorites.

LUMBERWORKERS' STRIKE

To the Editor:—It appears to us from recent items appearing in your paper that persons interviewed are trying to confuse the public on the issue of the present strike of the lumberworkers.

For the information of the Minister of Labor we may say that if he will take the trouble to visit Lake Cowichan he will see our charter affiliation with the American Federation of Labor in plain view at strike headquarters.

The present strike has been called by the Lumber and Sawmill Workers' Union of British Columbia in an effort to gain recognition, improve conditions in camps and mills, to combat the high death rate due to the present speed up system and to bring our pay rate more in line with that in force in the U.S.A. The employers in the past have refused to recognize an employees' union of any description and have ruthlessly hounded any worker found engaged in union activities.

Referring to the strike called at Camps 10 and 8 on March 10, on account of the discharge of two men for union activities, and which is still in force, we may say that we are very much disappointed with the part the Department of Labor has taken. The writer is given to understand that Mr. Adam Bell visited the strike committee for about five minutes and then stated he would have to see Mr. Long before he could take any action. We are still waiting for this action.

IMPERIALISM

To the Editor:—"Curious" has not stopped to think. Benito Mussolini and Hitler have put the world back at least 300 years. And alongside that are equipping themselves with modern warfare implements, including muskets, machine guns, and equipment of modern science, which, in some things is deadly, it's no victory, because no even fight. In other words, it is not cricket. It is aggression. The writer hopes this may help "Curious" to understand the position better.

YOUTH FORUM'S SENTIMENTS

To the Editor:—I was pleased to read two letters by "British Canadian" and "Young Britisher" respectively in your edition of May 11. If there are enough citizens and young citizens of the calibre of "British Canadian," who writes: "It is nevertheless an unpleasant surprise to find in British Columbia such evidence of ingratitude, lack of appreciation for and of the immense benefits which have been in the past and presently are enjoyed by Canada through its connection with the British Empire," and "Young Britisher" who declares: "I think that every youth that stands beneath the shade of the Union Jack should be proud to lay down his life for his king," then this province will have little to fear from those un-British forces and their allies who seek to cause strife and discord in our midst and estrange us from our Motherland and the Empire.

And if I know true Britishers aright or but half know them—I think it will be a long while ere Britishers disavow their allegiance to the empire upon which the sun never sets, and whose monarch so won the affections of his people by such words as these: "Let me and my words to you with those which Queen Victoria used after her Diamond Jubilee, thirty-eight years ago. No words could more truly or simply express my own deep feeling now: 'From my heart I thank my beloved people, May God bless them.' " and whose actions throughout his long and trying reign so exemplified the true qualities of a gentleman.

Athlete Passes During Training

Toronto, May 13.—William Jones, eighteen-year-old track and field athlete, ran a practice half-mile, then went to the running high jump pit on the Western Technical School campus yesterday and made one jump. He cleared the bar and was dead when fellow students picked him up.

It was understood he had suffered since childhood from heart trouble, but recently his heart had not bothered him.

Demonstration Against Emden

Police Break Up Anti-Nazi Crowd as German Warship Docks at Montreal

Montreal, May 13.—The German cruiser Emden docked at Montreal yesterday, slipping quietly out of a thick morning fog to tie up at Laurier Pier.

Cordons of police held back crowds of civilians on shore to greet the German vessel, but within sight of the ship there was no disturbance. A few streets from the waterfront, however, police—250 strong—broke up a crowd of 200 persons attempting an anti-Nazi demonstration. Ten persons, including three women, were arrested and charged with disturbing the peace.

The crowd carried banners denouncing Adolf Hitler and the berthing in Montreal of the Reich warship. Mounted police led a squad of police on foot into the crowd and the would-be demonstrators were soon scattered, though not before police had been made the targets of sticks and bricks.

But back at the pier everything went ahead as scheduled. German naval tunes, played by a band on the deck of the trim fighting ship, heralded her arrival. Two little tugs guided her into her berth while on the docks the Emden's white-clad naval cadets and officers stood at attention.

The Emden is the first vessel to fly the Nazi flag up the St. Lawrence River and the first German warship to come upstream since before the Great War. She is the Reich ship to carry the name Emden, the name made famous in the early months of the Great War by Kaiser Wilhelm's daring sea Captain Von Muller.

The Emden, pride of the German Navy was an Indian Chief in command now. Yesterday Captain Bachmann, commanding officer of the cruiser was initiated into the Mohawk Tribe of the Six Nations Indians as Chief Big River at a special ceremony.

Blaze Aboard Veteran Ship

Vancouver, May 13.—Workmen today were busy repairing slight damage done to the coastwise freighter Otter by a fire as she lay at a wharf here.

Workmen were using an acetylene torch to cut the supports from the ship's boiler, which was being removed after her conversion to Diesel, and it is believed the flame caught some oil in the bilges.

One workman suffered a burned hand as he fought the blaze before firemen arrived.

The Otter was bought by the Gibson Brothers of Aboulay, Vancouver Island, several years ago from the B.C. Coast Service. She was built in 1900.

Manufacture of quinine is taking a spurt in Germany.

DUNCAN MAN PASSES AWAY

Late James H. Whitmore
Was Resident of Duncan
For Forty Years

James H. Whitmore, well-known resident of Vancouver Island, died suddenly at 9 o'clock yesterday evening at his home at Duncan. He was sixty-five years old.

Born in London, England, in 1871, Mr. Whitmore came to the Pacific Coast in 1892, where he took up residence on Vancouver Island. He had lived in Duncan since the time of his coming to Canada and only left the island for two years when he went to South Africa in 1906.

He was engaged in the real estate business for forty years.

He is survived by his wife, Florence (nee Jaynes), a native of Duncan, one son, Robert Whitmore, also of Duncan, and five grandchildren. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at St. Peter's Church.

ATTITUDE OF FRANCE TOLD

Mme. H. N. Archibald Tells Kiwians Blum Government May Be Good Thing

"Unless France sticks to one policy of honest dealing with a country like England that has been wishing her well for the last twenty years, she is going to make a great mistake," Madame H. N. Archibald told the Kiwanis Club at its luncheon today.

Mme. Archibald analyzed conditions in Europe generally and in France in particular in the light of a two-years' visit, six months of which was spent in her home city, Paris; living the life of a Frenchwoman.

"We are all asking ourselves 'What of war?' If Mac West is not an angel, I am certainly no prophet," she said.

Mme. Archibald believed the new government of Leon Blum might well be the best thing for France. Of Blum himself, she said: "He is a Jew, a man of great intellect, the only man today who knows what he wants and will see it through."

In reviewing public opinion in France today, Mme. Archibald found the nation as a whole intensely individualistic, and practically incapable of looking at conditions from an international viewpoint. She was not reticent in stating the faults of her own countrymen.

"France is selfish—we must admit it—callous, because of her sufferings, which are sometimes forgotten, and suspicious. The people are hatefully fooled by an abominable press. I left Paris with a heavy heart at so much misunderstanding all along the line, and I felt danger looming ahead," she said.

HOSTILITY TO ENGLISH

Mme. Archibald spoke of the intense hostile feeling toward the English in France at present. During her stay in Paris she drove a small English car, and at every street corner she was insulted, and on several occasions people picked up stones to throw at the machine's windows.

Saying that class distinctions in France were still very marked because of the individualism of the French nature, Mme. Archibald analyzed briefly the sentiments of each class of the people.

The professional classes, purely intellectual, were trying to redress the conditions which had brought misery to them, but found themselves up against political and party divisions. She did not think this class was pulling its weight toward the stability of the country as much as it did in England.

GREAT MISERY

The shopkeepers, a fine class of people, who ran their business usually along family lines, were asking themselves what they had done or left undone that their misery was so great. This class was perhaps suffering most from the depression which had struck France, and Paris in particular, very hard, so hard that hotels the size of the Empress in Paris were empty, and the luxury shops were closed. Paris, she said, was a very sad city.

The officer class was a fine body of men, highly educated, but limited in outlook because of its education, and militaristic. They had seen what they had fought for in the Great War taken away from them. "It is impossible for that class to see anything but the French problem," she said.

The well-to-do and the nobility, intensely Catholic, sought to bring back Royalty, especially their young men.

"I doubt whether a return of the Bourbon royalty would be a good thing for France," she commented.

The Socialists probably had no international outlook at all, said Mme. Archibald. The Communists were having a good time among themselves and against their personal enemies.

"Really, I don't know, looking over the political situation in France—I don't think anyone knows—what we can expect. That is why I rather welcome Monsieur Blum. Perhaps he thinks more internationally than the others," she said.

Mme. Archibald spoke briefly of the depth of feeling which she had seen in London at the time of the funeral of King George and the simplicity and tremendous scale of that event.

She was thanked by Dr. Ewart Geo. William Lunney presided.

The relief agreements now being entered into with the provinces will provide for a review of the relief situation at the end of each quarter by the National Employment Commission and the Department of Labor, the minister announced.

IMPROVEMENT SEEN
Some fears had been expressed that with the vote for grants-in-aid for the entire year fixed at $26,000,000, there would be an immediate cut in the monthly grants. Although there had been an encouraging improvement in the relief situation, Mr. Rogers said, the government had decided to make no reduction for two months at least.

Provision has been made in the estimates for the Dominion to spend $9,200,000 in co-operation with the provinces on unemployment relief work. This was under review in conference yesterday between members of the Dominion Government and Premier Hepburn of Ontario and several of his colleagues.

ONTARIO GRANTS
Toronto, May 13 (Canadian Press).—Ontario will continue to get $800,000 monthly in unemployment relief grants from the federal administration, Hon. David Croll, Labor Welfare Minister, announced on his return today from Ottawa, where he conferred with Hon. Norman Macdonald, federal Minister of Labor. Prior to April 1, Ontario had been receiving $1,050,000 monthly from the Dominion but after that date a 15 per cent cut reduced the total to $890,000.

Distillers in Canada To Pay U.S. Big Sum

the assumption an embargo was necessary to compel an effective adjudication of the United States government's tax claims.

STOCKS GO UP
Montreal, May 13.—Liquor stocks bounded forward in a buying scramble on the Montreal Stock Exchange today when traders learned an agreement had been reached on United States claims against Canadian distillers for tariff duties on liquor smuggled into that country during prohibition.

The amount to be paid the United States government was not made public by Washington Treasury officials, but unconfirmed reports here said it was $45,000,000. The original claim was for more than $100,000,000.

OTTAWA WELCOMES NEWS
Ottawa, May 13.—News from Washington that Treasury officials there and large distillers of Canadian liquor had reached a settlement on United States claims for duty on liquor smuggled from Canada during the era of the Volstead Act was received here today with satisfaction.

Fear was expressed previously that legislation pending before Congress might wipe out considerable benefit to Canada arising from the Canada-United States trade agreement by prohibiting American imports of liquor from the Canadian companies allegedly owing the United States Treasury unpaid duty.

While the Canadian government was said to have taken no official part in the negotiations looking to settlement of the differences between Canadian distillers and the United States Treasury, Prime Minister King told the House of Commons last March 18 the United States knew the government's views on the matter. He did not say what those views were.

SOLD TO EXPORTERS
Protest of the Canadian distillers against the proposed United States legislation was said to be based on the contention they had not exported liquor to the United States during prohibition but had sold it in Canada to exporters.

When Congress repealed the prohibition law, it was said, Canadian distillers had in bond about 40,000,000 gallons of whisky, about 30,000,000 of them aged for four years or more.

The United States tariff on imports of whisky at $5 a gallon proved a substantial barrier to Canadian exports of those stocks. Under the Canada-United States trade pact, however, the American duty was reduced to $2.50 a proof spirit gallon wine measure. Exports of Canadian liquor to the United States showed an appreciable jump thereafter in comparison with their volume the year before.

Four Men Held By Vancouver Police

Vancouver, May 13.—Four men, alleged to have assaulted workers of the Hunting Merritt Shingle Mill as they were going to work several days ago, today were held by police here.

Officials also stopped four carloads of men at the Burrum bridge over the north arm of the Fraser River. Police said the men were on their way to picket the Homalco Logging Company's shingle mill at Burrum.

The administration's move followed accidental entanglement of Representative Marion A. Zioncheck, Seattle, the homecoming United States congressman, with the student "freedom" demonstrations.

annexed Ethiopia and that the King of Italy had now assumed the title of Emperor of Ethiopia.

Britain had accepted the decree "under all reserve," he said, pending the return from Geneva of Rt. Hon. Anthony Eden, Foreign Secretary.

"And will tear it up, I hope," interposed Seymour Coombs, Labor, to the tune of laughter from the Labor benches.

MILITARY OCCUPATION
Mr. Baldwin related how Marshal Pietro Badoglio (made Viceroy of the conquered land by Duce) had told Sir Sidney Barton, British minister at Addis Ababa, and the heads of the other legations there, he now had assumed civil and military powers.

The government, Mr. Baldwin added, had instructed Sir Sidney to regard Badoglio for the present as an authority in military occupation of Addis Ababa.

POSITION OF MINISTER
Mr. Fletcher pressed for a definite reply to the question whether the British government regarded Sir Sidney as still accredited to the Ethiopian government.

Mr. Baldwin said: "I should have thought my reply as to an authority in military occupation was an answer to that question."

Following delivery to the Foreign Office of a copy of the Italian decree, it was stated that for the time being there is no question of British recognition of the annexation.

France also received the news from Rome of Italy's declaration of annexation of Ethiopia, with full reservations.

Aboard the Zeppelin Hindenburg en route to Germany, May 13.—Favored by a good tail-wind over the Great Northern Circle, the zeppelin Hindenburg sped into the second stretch today of its return flight across the Atlantic to Germany.

Despite fog and falling winds during the first day's run from Lakehurst, N.J., the massive airship had maintained an average speed of seventy-one miles an hour yesterday for the first half of the flight to its home base at Frankfurt.

Dr. Hugo Eckener, president of the Zeppelin Company, was in a jovial mood. He beamed with pleasure when informed of reports a triumphant reception awaited him on his return to Frankfurt.

A Mackay radio report gave the Hindenburg's position at 5 a.m. P.S.T. About 600 miles west of Land's End, the first landfall of southwest England.

Great Majority in Commons For Budget Proposals

U.P.O.-Labor, Grey-Bruce, Ont., who did not vote the first time.

APPLAUSE FOR DUNNING
Every seat in the galleries was taken when Speaker Cagrain called for the show of party strength late in the evening after a long day of debate. While the whips were out rounding up the strays, French-Canadian and old folk songs and the tension of days was broken.

Hon. Charles A. Dunning, Finance Minister, drew rounds of applause when he rose to vote. Denton Massey, Conservative, Toronto-Greenwood, also was applauded, not for delivering a budget but for winning the parliamentary "beauty sweepstakes."

STEVENS ABSENT
Only twenty-four members were absent when the votes were taken. Hon. H. H. Stevens, who led the Reconstruction forces in the election but succeeded in electing only himself, was among them.

The vote on the Social Credit amendment was: Against, Liberals, 146; Conservatives, 95; and C.C.F., 7. For: Social Credit, 16.

The vote on the C.C.F. amendment was: Against, Liberals, 160; Conservatives, 35; Social Credit, 18; C.C.F., 7. and Miss Agnes MacPhail. Political observers said the budget debate was one of the shortest on record. The Finance Minister brought down the budget May 1. Former Premier Bennett opened the debate May 5 and other party leaders later followed him.

PAUSE IN SUIT FOR DAMAGES
McAlester, Okla., May 13.—A prison brickyard foreman was slain and the body tossed from a speeding automobile, a convict was killed, a guard wounded and another held hostage as twelve desperate convicts broke from the McAlester penitentiary today. Six of the convicts were recaptured.

The rioting convicts seized A. D. Powell, a guard, forced him into a guard's automobile, then shot him in the head and dumped his body out on a street nearly a mile from the prison near the downtown business section.

Cop, another guard, also was seized and still was unaccounted for this afternoon.

Guards shot down a convict identified tentatively as Robert Dunningham, and recaptured six of the others as they attempted to commandeer a car on a highway near the prison brickyard.

tribute our boys, because of the bungling of British statesmen." These questions were too important to be passed over lightly said Mr. Woodworth. There should be full discussion and a clear understanding, he added.

Mr. King said he was prepared to meet the wishes of the House in this as in all other matters. He was convinced the majority of members as well as the majority of the people believed they could contribute more effectively to a solution of the problems with which European statesmen were grappling by "considering very this discussion."

Launching a precipitate debate on the League would not be helpful, Mr. King even suggested launching it in the last month might have been harmful. The government had considered it best to proceed in the House with other matters of immediate concern on which members had full information.

BENNETT SUPPORTS PREMIER
Conservative Leader Bennett said Mr. King had fully discharged his duty to the House by promising a discussion of League matters on estimates.

"I do not share the views of Mr. Woodworth that discussion in this chamber is going to have any great effect on the world at large," said Mr. Bennett.

Canadians should be careful when speaking in Parliament, to say nothing which would embarrass or retard a real solution of critical international difficulties.

"Our effort must be to uphold the hands of those who are endeavoring to maintain the peace of the world," he added. "How best to do that may, of course, give rise to differences of opinion between parties and within parties, but these questions far transcend party politics."

CONFIDENCE VOICED
Mr. King as Prime Minister had information other members could not have, Mr. Bennett continued. In the nature of things Mr. King had to determine when it was best to discuss League matters. He had confidence in Mr. King's judgment because no Prime Minister would fail to give his best thought to such a vital matter.

Justice Minister Lapointe said the Council of the League realized the seriousness of the situation and adjourned its discussions until June.

Mr. Lapointe believed the example of the League might be adopted by Parliament and discussions postponed.

BILL OPPOSED BY SPEAKER

Associated Press

Washington, May 13.—Speaker Byrns took the United States House of Representatives floor today in the fight over the Frazier-Lemke farm mortgage refinancing bill to read a letter from William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, opposing passage of the $3,000,000,000 measure.

Mr. Green's letter stated the A.F. of L. executive council now meeting in Washington had gone on record as against the bill "largely because of its inflationary features."

"We know," the speaker read, "that when inflation of the kind proposed in this bill is adopted, commodity prices rise and wages stand still."

D. H. Walkinshaw-Col. G. A. Drew Hearing at Toronto Adjourned Till June 8

Toronto, May 13.—Hearing of the second count in the libel action brought by Donald H. Walkinshaw against Col. George A. Drew was set over till June 8 by Mr. Justice Mackin today after brief argument developed when Col. Drew charged attempts had been made at witness tampering.

The jury yesterday found in Col. Drew's favor on the first count in the libel action, based on an article allegedly supplied by the colonel and which Mr. Walkinshaw charged contained libel.

Col. Drew today urged hearing of the second count be proceeded with immediately and then declared: "Mr. Walkinshaw yesterday sought to interfere with one of my witnesses. An inducement was held out to him by Mr. Walkinshaw. He took him out to lunch."

His lordship stopped Col. Drew after Walter Hayden, K.C., Mr. Walkinshaw's counsel, had protested.

PRAISE GIVEN GIRLSOPRANOS

Work Exhibited in Mass Singing Wins Compliments at Vancouver Festival

Vancouver, May 13.—Girl sopranos took the spotlight at the British Columbia Music Festival here today and won high praise from their adjudicators.

The test piece was Handel's "When the Dove Mourns," from the opera "Acis and Galatea."

There were twenty entries, including Catherine Craig of Victoria, who was given 84 marks in the preliminary contest and was complimented with the whole class for the extraordinary excellence of the work exhibited. "I have been thrilled through and through," said D. T. Yacimul, calling the contestants to the platform again to sing in massed formation. Instead of individually.

All contestants came in the honors class, each one receiving well above 80 marks. Miss Craig was only one mark down from the highest of 85.

Finalists chosen to compete again tonight are all Vancouver girls—Betty Blakely, Audrey Jones, Helen Vearn, Kathleen Conn and Bonniel Barbour.

German Machinery To Ethiopia Mines

Rome, May 13.—Plans for co-operation between Italy and Germany in development of Ethiopia's resources were viewed here today as an extension of the close economic relations which have grown up between the two states since the application of sanctions curtailed Italian trade with France, Britain and other League powers.

Participation of the Reich in Italy's projects for the exploitation of Ethiopia will probably take the form of an agreement under which German industry would furnish the mining machinery fascists plan to use in an effort to develop the East African territory into a source of much-needed mineral products.

New Wire Basis For Radio Soon

Telephone Companies Should Share With Telegraphs Across Canada, Says Minister

Ottawa, May 13.—Belief the telephone companies of Canada should be given an equal opportunity with the telegraph companies in tendering for business of the Canadian Radio Commission was voiced today by two members of the Commons committee on broadcasting.

Cameron R. McIntosh, Liberal, North Battleford, Sask., declared the committee should say at once that telephone companies, if their submission they had equal if not better facilities was true, should be given an even chance with the telegraph companies in bidding for radio business.

Hon. C. D. Howe, Minister of Railways and Marine, agreed and said he thought that assurance could be given.

CONTRACTS TILL 1940
Yesterday representatives of Canadian telephone companies protested before the committee they had not been afforded an opportunity to compete with the telegraph companies for this business. Today D. L. Howard, Montreal, representing both the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific Telephone Companies, gave some particulars of the exclusive contracts with the commission by which these companies have a monopoly of the commission's land wire business until 1940.

Later the committee heard another suggested plan for reorganizing the machinery of radio broadcasting in Canada, presented by C. M. Pasmore, speaking for the Association of Canadian Advertisers, the Association of Canadian Advertising Agencies and the Association of Canadian Broadcasters.

"As in the case of previous suggested plans, that outlined today involves replacing the commission with a general manager and a board of governors acting in an honorary capacity. The principle of national control would be retained, coupled with encouragement of private commercial broadcasting in which the directing body would not compete."

Mr. Pasmore's suggestion was for a board of nine members, including the chairman. He would have the broadcasters and advertisers he represented nominate one member each, others to be nominated by the Minister of Transport, the land wire companies, the National Council of Education, National Council of Women, conservatories of music, Trades and Labor Congress and agricultural interests.

Assurance of the maintenance of interest payments was given here by Premier Aberhart in an interview when he declared, "We owe the interest and I think we should pay it."

Payment of principal would be made, Mr. Aberhart said, but the time would have to be extended and it was hard to fix a definite date.

"We intend to maintain the principal," he said in explaining that provision would be made for the $3,200,000 issue in his $180,000,000 refunding plan which will come into operation within the next few weeks.

The plan for refunding the province's bonded debt is the next major step in paying the way for the Social Credit programme. Social Credit would be introduced stage-by-stage, the Premier said.

Payment of Alberta's Social Credit basic dividends under which citizens would be paid a monthly dividend—forecast by many as $25 a month—would be the last stage in the government's plan to create an era of plenty for all.

First must come the solving of the problems of debt, a balanced budget, employment established, purchasing power increased, industry aided and a start made in the development of the natural resources of Alberta.

GRADUAL START
General dividends would not be instituted in blanket form, the Premier indicated. He said they would be gradually introduced. Some citizens would have a first claim in receiving the monthly payments.

First, the Premier said, would be the aged and sick, the unemployed and through the dividends the youth of the province would be assisted. Then, with Social Credit in full operation, would come the payments to all bona fide citizens.

REGISTRATION NEEDED
The Premier gave no indication as to when the payments would start. There would have to be a general registration of citizens and this, it was announced sometime ago, had been postponed indefinitely.

"That will never happen," he said. "We shall always need some products produced outside the province," he added as he enumerated fruits and other articles that would have to be bought in other provinces.

In an earlier interview at Edmonton, Mr. Aberhart had declared: "All our efforts are being directed toward working out our problems in conjunction with the rest of Canada and the empire. We have absolutely no intention or idea of isolating ourselves if we can help it."

VANCOUVER MAN PASSES
Canadian Press
Vancouver, May 13.—Vancouver has lost one of its best-known pioneer residents in the death of Malcolm R. Reid, sixty-year-old immigration Department employee. He died aboard a Canadian Pacific train at Beavermouth, B.C., yesterday as he was returning home from a visit to Great Britain.

He was born in Scotland and came to Vancouver when fourteen years old. He taught school in the Yukon and later here and in 1911 joined the immigration service, being made commissioner in charge of the Vancouver office. In 1916 he was appointed special agent for western Canada.

In 1914 he had trouble with the Komagata Maru when that vessel arrived here with a load of Sikhs and his department refused them admittance to the city. The Canadian cruiser Rainbow was called from Esquimalt and threatened to send boarding parties to the Japanese vessel before the trouble was ended.

Bridal Epidemic Among Chorines

Follies Beauties This Spring
Follow One Another to the Altar

New York, May 13.—Wedding bells have rung for Broadway's belles so often this spring that the wisecracks are investigating this sudden epidemic of domesticity.

When in four successive weeks, four statuesque chorines in "The Ziegfeld Follies" announced that they were about to be married, the management grew puzzled and frightened. What if the whole bevy of blonde and brunettes were to swing into the wedding march! Could John Q. Public be sold an expensive musical featuring thirty beautiful housewives?

Fortunately, one of the spring brides saved the "Follies" tradition and called the marriage off after two weeks. That was Jessica Pepper, who eloped one night with a curly-headed juvenile, Leon Janney, and changed her mind a couple of weeks ago. She is awaiting an annulment. But the other three "Follies" beauties were not dismayed by Miss Pepper's matrimonial error. In fact, they took it with a holler of glee.

So a week or so later, Thelma Shearon eloped with a master of ceremonies, and on the following Sunday, Isabel Pulsford, a picture of pulchritude, promised to love, honor and obey a physician from the suburbs. Then, when the "Follies" was settling down to a single life for a while, out went Peggy Quinn, whose face and figure adorn the front line of the chorus. She wed a youthful Wall Street broker.

All this is not only disconcerting to the management, but to the tired business men in the bald-headed row, who will find it hard to believe that when the curtain has fallen and the desirable nymphs have put some clothes on, they will go back to their husbands and light housekeeping.

BLAME LAID TO BIRTH CONTROL

Wrong Class Influenced
By Propaganda

Associated Press
Kansas City, May 13.—Birth-control "propagandists" were blamed for an alarming slump in child-bearing by educated families of the United States and with falling to the poor whose cause they champion in a report today before the American Medical Association.

Delegated representatives of more than 100,000 physicians heard a special committee state as a result of an extensive investigation:

1. "Belief that at present the part of the United States population with the best education and presumably the most competent socially and economically is not reproducing itself and that birth-control propaganda is partially responsible for this condition."
2. It found "no evidence available to justify the broad claim that dissemination of contraceptive information will improve the economic status of the lower-income groups."
3. There is "no evidence that existing laws, federal or state, have interfered with any medical advice which a physician has felt called upon to furnish his patients, but that clarification of the laws is desirable."

ADVICE TO WOMEN

ALL women at some period of their lives need a strengthening tonic like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The young woman who suffers from monthly pains, the expectant mother who has nausea and other disagreeable symptoms, or the middle-aged woman who experiences "hot flashes" will find this "Prescription" a most valuable aid. Dr. James A. H. Smith, of St. Louis, Mo., writes: "Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has done a lot for me. It keeps me well and healthy, I need it before my children come and it helps to relieve many discomforts. I also used it during 'change of life' and it helped me equally as much." Lamb neck is rich in those meat substances called "extractives" that are so appetizing and stimulating, and impart such a delightful flavor to stew, soups and braised dishes. The four or five attractive slices which may be cut from it are ideal for casserole preparations. Even if they are stewed, the pieces cut in this way look better than if just cut up any way.

CHAPTER GIFT

Willows School Receives Interesting Mementoes of Late King From I.O.D.E.

An interesting little ceremony took place at the Willows Public School yesterday afternoon, when officers of the Sir Matthew Baillie Begbie Chapter, I.O.D.E., visited the institution to make a presentation. The gift on behalf of the chapter included a gramophone record of the speech broadcast last Christmas by the late King George and a framed copy of his Jubilee message to children.

Mrs. H. D. Pariseau, the regent, who formally presented the gifts, was accompanied by Mrs. Allan Campbell, educational secretary of the chapter; Miss E. M. King, second vice-regent, and Mrs. C. T. Teasdale, vice-regent.

Mrs. Campbell addressed the children and referred to the importance of their heritage as young Canadians.
She took them on an imaginary air trip across the continent, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, describing many interesting points and calling their attention to the fact that all this territory belonged to Canadians.

The children sang several of their school songs in honor of the visitors, and presented them with sheaves of tulips.

PARNELL PLAY UNDER BAN

London Censor Puts Question Up to Kitty O'Shea's Family

By THOMAS T. CHAMPTON
Canadian Press Staff Writer
London, May 13.—The Lord Chamberlain has put it up to the descendants of Capt. O'Shea to decide whether or not to allow the play, "Parnell," based on the life of the famous Irish leader, shall be produced publicly in London.

The Lord Chamberlain, London's censor of stage plays, announced yesterday he was prepared to remove his ban providing members of the O'Shea family acquiesce. However, the present Capt. O'Shea has declined to enter negotiations.

The producers have expressed their willingness to have objectionable passages of the play eliminated, and for this purpose are ready to engage a distinguished dramatist to do the pruning.

The Lord Chamberlain's action in banning the play, which was a success in New York and is now being revived there for the Broadway summer season, followed the rumour over the "Barretts of Wimpole Street," the
cided that descendants of stage characters who lived in relatively recent years are entitled to raise objections to such presentations.

WOMAN'S CONGRESS IS BLAZE OF COLOR

Brilliant banners and fashionably-gowned women, participating in stirring, flag-processional pageantry—this was the colorful scene in Washington's Constitutional Hall just before President-General Mrs. William A. Becker, right, of Summit, N.J., opened the forty-fifth Continental Congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution. In their initial session, the Daughters were greeted by a message from President Roosevelt, asserting that the United States would continue to work for international arms reduction, and pledging an adequate and efficient national defence. The president was to have attended, but was prevented by death of his friend and political adviser, Louis McHenry Howe.

Your Baby And Mine

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED
FED SEVEN TIMES DAILY, BABY NEEDS FEWER AND BETTER MEALS

While each child is a law unto himself and rules must be altered and changed so as to accommodate personal differences, it is desirable when the differences a parent introduces are not showing good results, to at least try to follow the rules and regulations.

Mrs. F. A. writes: "My daughter is now eleven weeks old. She weighed seven pounds at birth and now weighs nearly twelve. She is fed seven times a day. Her formula is:
24 ounces of vitamin D milk, boiled with 1 1/2 ounces of water and 1 1/2 tablespoons of corn syrup and 6 teaspoons of fine cereal. After boiling, the deficit is made up with boiled water."

TOO MANY MEALS
"About one-half hour before each feeding she wakens and can't wait until feeding time. Should I feed her every hour? Or should I give her broth in between feedings? She gets three teaspoons of cod liver oil a day, but won't take orange juice. It seems to give her colic."

Your baby is already fed too often.
Five times a day is quite enough for a baby of this age and weight. Also as the average baby of this age does not get such an amount of cereal and does get more sugar in the formula, this would be a wise change to make. The milk should be boiled first and then measured, so the baby gets the amount prescribed.

PUT JUICE IN BOTTLES
Orange juice is essential with a boiled milk formula, and this element can be given, usually, without any upset, by adding a small portion of juice to the milk. Thus, give one teaspoonful in each bottle, then two until baby takes about one to one and a half ounces a day in all. Add it right before feeding.

Our leaflet, "Sweet Milk Formulas," will show you how to strengthen the formula from now on, and the leaflet,
"Feeding from Two to Nine Months," which is brand new and right up to the minute, will give you information on the addition of solid foods.
Please send a self-addressed envelope to Myrtle Meyer Eldred of the "Your Baby and Mine" department of this newspaper, and ask for the leaflets by name.

Tomorrow: If baby won't eat, don't try to force him.

GORGEOUS

BY LAURA LOU BROOKMAN

Alper told them about the "real break" he had had a few months before when he and a dozen other models had boarded a cruise ship for a week's trip to the West Indies, enjoying the deck sports and swimming pool, sunning themselves by day and dancing by night. Camera men had been making pictures meanwhile to use in making pictures and were paid for their work.

It was after 1 o'clock when they reached the "location." The house, set apart from those about it, was on the edge of the bay. It looked like an old-fashioned farmhouse which, Frazier told them, was what the story called for.

They left the car and went up to the house. "We'll take the porch first," Hiatt announced.

This was to be a picture of Toby and Mrs. Gregg. The two went into the house and a servant showed them the room they were to use for dressing. Toby slipped on her sweater and white skirt and Mrs. Gregg put on a simple cotton frock. She put on spectacles, changed the outline of her hair and Toby was amazed at the transformation.

Then they went out to the porch and Frazier explained the pose. Mrs. Gregg sat in a low, old-fashioned chair and Toby on the step below. Frazier was exacting and the scene, though it was simple enough, had to be rehearsed and changed from several angles. At last Frazier was satisfied and the camera clicked.

"And now for the boat ride!" exclaimed Hiatt.

Toby went into the house again and put on the ruffled summer dress. She came back, hurried in her coat, and found Alper, cooless and in white flannels.

They walked to the rear of the house where the others were waiting. There was a private boat landing and, securely fastened, a rowboat bobbed on the rippling surface of the water.

"Get in," the photographer instructed, "and push off a little way." Toby dropped her coat and sat down in the boat. The wind, over the water, was raw and sharp. Alper pulled on the oars and the boat moved away from the landing. Toby leaned back against a cushion, tried to smile. She had been told to drop one hand into the water, raising it carefully. She did, and almost screamed. The water was like ice.

From the bank Hiatt shouted, shaking his head that something was wrong. Alper headed the boat back, and they tried it all over again. They tried it a third time and then a fourth. Toby was chilled to the bone by this time and the hand she dropped into the water felt numb.

"Come back," Hiatt called. "Get out and put your coats on for a while. Then we'll try it again." Toby said, climbing up on the landing. "How can I take my picture when I'm shivering so?"

"We'll get it," Hiatt assured her. And they did. Twenty minutes later the pictures were finished and all of them were back in the house, drinking hot coffee and eating sandwiches.

Mrs. Gregg insisted Toby should toast her feet at the radiator, and that Alper should sit beside her. "You two children," she said, "look half-frozen. It's dangerous to risk a cold at this time of year."

She took Alper's coffee cup away to refill it. Toby, looking after her, said, "She's a dear, isn't she? Where in the world did she find her?" Alper looked surprised. "Why, don't you know?" he asked. "That's Margaret Gregg."

He saw that she did not understand, and went on. "Twenty years ago Margaret Gregg was one of the best-known actresses in New York. She played leads in half a dozen Broadway shows. Then she got older and went into stock. Since then, I guess she had one bad break after another. Now and then she gets a little part in some play, and she models whenever she gets the chance. Hiatt likes her, and so do most of the photographers. She's a real trouper."

Margaret Gregg came back with the coffee. "Here," she said, "drink this. You want to be thoroughly warm before we start back to the city."

Toby looked up at her. Not all the lines in Margaret Gregg's face had come from age. But there was courage there, and something that spoke of sweetness as well as strength.

Toby thought, "She's seen suffering, she's known real trouble." Her own doubts and difficulties suddenly seemed less important.

When she reached the apartment that night there was a letter lying on the table. It was addressed to Toby Ryan.

CHAPTER XXII
Harriet, who was at the mirror coaxing her hair into soft waves, said, "There's a letter for you, Toby. It came in the afternoon mail."

Toby picked up the letter and for one breathless moment her heart soared. Then she saw the name on the corner of the envelope and the warm feeling that had surrounded her vanished. The letter wasn't from

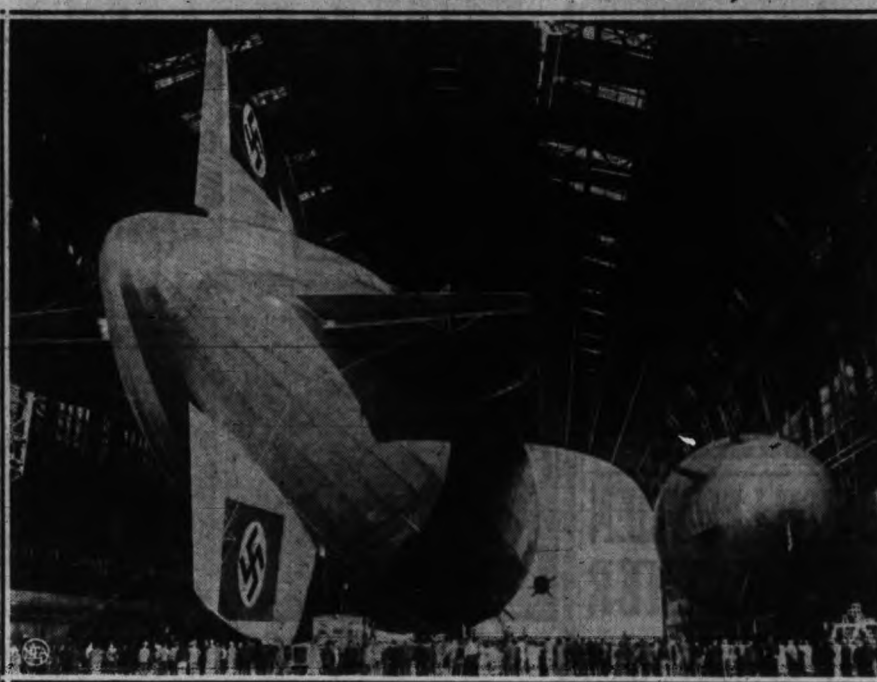

Many women are inclined to overdo the social side of the situation. They should avoid visitors, however, or make the stay of visitors short during the first few weeks. Long telephone calls frequently are more boring and weakening than actual conversation with visitors.

Persons with colds or infections should never visit a woman who has just had a baby, and certainly should be kept out of any contact with the baby or the baby's room.

If the mother herself develops a cold, she should always cover her mouth with a handkerchief or mask when nursing or bathing the baby.

DIRIGIBLE IN BIG GUEST-ROOM AT LAKEHURST, N.J.

Housed by the U.S. navy, the record-making dirigible Hindenburg dwarfed its room-mate, the little blimp at the right, in the great hangar at Lakehurst, N.J., that is ordinarily used to shelter the retired Zeppelin Los Angeles. The size of the world's largest "bird" may be judged by comparing it with the spectators lined up in the foreground. While the Hindenburg was at Lakehurst the Los Angeles was moored in the open air, at the big mast on the field.

Seattle, May 12.—Trapped thirty-five feet underground in quicksand in a sewer excavation, Clarence B. Good, a W.P.A. laborer, yesterday directed his own rescue until he was extricated and taken to the surface.

He was taken to a hospital, where attendants said he apparently had escaped with bruises and shock.

The sand buried Good to his neck, and water was rising when a fire department pump arrived and kept the water down until the man could be removed.

Canadian Press

Ottawa, May 12.—As a result of the increase in life expectancy in the last quarter-century, purchasers of Canadian government annuities should be paying rates 25 per cent in excess of those prevailing. A. D. Watson, chief actuary of the Dominion insurance department, estimated at a meeting of a Senate special committee yesterday.

On that basis, he said, $26,000,000 should have been collected at purchase price in place of $21,000,000 on annuity contracts made last year.

Increase in life expectancy among industrial policyholders was from 66.63 per cent in 1911 to 59.19 per cent in 1934, according to figures of a leading insurance company, he said.

Recognizing this, groups of insurance companies had increased their rates from 27 to 33 per cent, but annuity rates had not been changed since the scheme was started in 1908. British government rates had been raised.

LOUISIANA HAS NEW GOVERNOR

R. W. Leche Signs Order For Life Service By Policemen and Firemen

Associated Press
Baton Rouge, La., May 12.—A thirty-seven-year-old lawyer, Richard Webster Leche, who yesterday took the helm of Louisiana's ship of state, today chartered for himself one of the most far-reaching programs ever undertaken by a Louisiana governor.

Within an hour after taking the oath of office, Leche moved to life all policemen and firemen in the state from any political control by signing his first official act an order commencing them for life.

He explained his order would give a self-styled "100 per cent Huey P. Long man," the new Governor, his pledged himself to carry on the "politics and ideals" of the late U.S. senator, but he will employ methods in sharp contrast to his political instructor.

GOVERNOR MAY TRAVEL ABROAD

Ottawa, May 12.—Amendments to letters patent from the King under which the Governor-General of Canada carries out duties of his office will permit his absence from Canada for a period not exceeding one month.

Heretofore the Governor-General could not leave Canadian soil at all without special permission from His Majesty and the appointment of an administrator.

SMUGGLING CUTS CHINA'S REVENUE

Shanghai, May 12.—Customs experts reported today that unless alleged Japanese-protected smuggling in North China was checked, redemption of foreign loans would be affected seriously, legitimate trade destroyed and the Chinese government authority injured.

The report cited numerous incidents in which the experts said Japanese military intervention had rendered Chinese customs control "abortive."

HIGHER RATES FOR ANNUITIES

Senate Committee Is Told Dominion Should Raise Charges

Canadian Press
Ottawa, May 12.—As a result of the increase in life expectancy in the last quarter-century, purchasers of Canadian government annuities should be paying rates 25 per cent in excess of those prevailing. A. D. Watson, chief actuary of the Dominion insurance department, estimated at a meeting of a Senate special committee yesterday.

On that basis, he said, $26,000,000 should have been collected at purchase price in place of $21,000,000 on annuity contracts made last year.

Increase in life expectancy among industrial policyholders was from 66.63 per cent in 1911 to 59.19 per cent in 1934, according to figures of a leading insurance company, he said.

Recognizing this, groups of insurance companies had increased their rates from 27 to 33 per cent, but annuity rates had not been changed since the scheme was started in 1908. British government rates had been raised.

On that basis, he said, $26,000,000 should have been collected at purchase price in place of $21,000,000 on annuity contracts made last year.

EARTH MAY GET SATURN'S RING

U Moon Comes Close Enough, Says Gordon Shaw; No Collision

The moon will never collide with the earth.

Instead if it did approach sufficiently close it would be broken into a meteoric ring like that around the planet Saturn.

Re-assuring many who had been led by stories to believe that a terrible celestial smash-up might occur one day, Gordon Shaw, quoted as a famous British scientist, to show that as soon as the moon got within 2.4 times the radius of the earth, the gravitational pull would smash it in a billion pieces and turn it into a ring like that of Saturn.

In a lecture, yesterday evening, before the Victoria branch of the Royal Astronomical Society, Mr. Shaw said that this had evidently happened in the case of Saturn. One of its satellites, millions of years ago, had got too close and had been smashed up.

The possibility of the earth achieving a ring was remote, Mr. Shaw said as the moon was getting farther away. In time it would probably take fifty-five days for the moon to make the trip around the earth instead of the present twenty-eight days. However, after the moon had got into the ether that distance, it might swing back and then it might get too close.

Jupiter was the only planet which was at all likely to become ringed as its satellite was approaching the danger zone, he said.

The surface of Saturn would be like freshly fallen snow, the speaker declared in pointing the relatively low density of the planet. What was known as a solid on the earth would only be found 3,700 miles beneath the surface of Saturn.

Saturn was undoubtedly the most beautiful if not the largest of the solar bodies, Mr. Shaw said. It was 985,990,000 miles from the sun as compared with the earth's 93,000,000 miles. He described the history of the discovery of the ring about the planet.

Mr. Shaw illustrated his lecture with an excellent model of the planet built by H. Boyd Bryden.

Alfred J. Peters gave an interesting talk on the planets and stars to be seen to advantage at the present time.

Plans were discussed by the members for a visit to the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory on Saturday evening.

Judge Takes Case From Assize Jury

Nelson, B.C., May 13.—Mr. Justice H. B. Robertson in assize court here yesterday discharged Robert A. Horwill, against whom a manslaughter charge had been laid in connection with the deaths of Roy Bradshaw and Miss Jean Smith, killed when Horwill's truck, in which they were riding, overturned on the Salmo Road on January 26.

At the conclusion of the crown's evidence Mr. Justice Robertson took the case from the jury. Crown counsel did not oppose the application for dismissal.

Horwill's truck, loaded with ski enthusiasts returning from Salmo, B.C., skidded on the icy road and overturned. Bradshaw and Miss Smith were fatally injured and several others suffered less serious injuries.

ARTILLERYMEN WILL GATHER

Members of 15th Brigade, C.F.A., to Celebrate Anniversary of Departure

To celebrate the twentieth anniversary of their departure overseas members of the 15th Brigade C.F.A. Association will hold a banquet in the Douglas Hotel on Saturday evening, May 30, commencing at 7 o'clock.

About 125 former artillerymen are expected to attend the gathering which will be under the chairmanship of Percy Gilson, president. Ralph Cruickshanks is secretary. Members of the unit will be here from Vancouver, Nanaimo, Duncan, Salt Spring Island, Sidney, and other points.

The unit left here on May 26, 1916, under the late Lieut.-Col. A. T. Ogilvie. It spent several months under canvas at Petawawa, Ont., and then proceeded to England, where the batteries were changed from four to six guns. Thinly distributed a reduction in the number of brigades and the 15th Brigade became the 14th Brigade.

All members of the unit are asked to get in touch with Mr. Cruickshanks at telephone E8612, or with Mr. Gilson, Scott Mason, Ted King or Archie Willis.

A good programme is being arranged and the old artillerymen are looking forward to the best reunion they have had since their return from overseas.

Francis Whitmarsh, sixty-seven, United States food administrator during the Great War, died yesterday.

Canadian Vimy Plans Extended

French Government Invites Dominion Pilgrims to Tour Republic After Unveiling of Memorial on Ridge

Ottawa, May 13.—The Government of France will be hosts to the Canadian pilgrims, following the conclusion of the unveiling of Canada's National Memorial on Vimy Ridge this summer. This was conveyed to Brig-General Alex Ross, Dominion president of the Canadian Legion, here yesterday in a communication from Dr. O. D. Skelton, Under-Secretary of State for External Affairs. Through the Canadian Legion at Paris, according to Dr. Skelton's note, the French government has offered "to take charge of the pilgrims from Saturday, August 1, until Thursday, August 6."

The itinerary of the official pilgrimage calls for the party to be in Canada, ready for embarkation for France, on August 1, but the French government is prepared to transport the pilgrims back to France, picking them up at Dover and Folkestone. Under official auspices those who desire to take advantage of this courtesy will be conducted on a trip occupying several days to Paris, Versailles, Chartres, Orleans, Blois, Chateau-Rouen and Havre.

The Legion has been asked to furnish the approximate number of those accepting France's offer.

TRAVELERS WILL TOTAL 6,000

Approximately 6,000 Canadians will proceed overseas aboard five liners on July 16 and 17, sailing from Montreal, on the Vimy pilgrimage. More than 7,000 had been booked when registrations closed a month ago, but cancellations have brought the total down to the lesser figure. Pilgrimage headquarters declared today that more than 80 per cent of those now registered had paid the full amount to the steamship companies, while half of the remaining 20 per cent had been deposited.

Yesterday evening Gen. Ross replied to the External Affairs Department accepting the French government's offer, and all those now registered are being communicated with in order to ascertain the number who will engage in this particular tour.

Selassie to Plead For Ethiopia At Session of League

At the same time, juridical experts conferred on suggestions the League be reorganized in conformity with present problems.

The council adjourned its ninety-second session at 6.50 p.m.

ITALY AND GERMANY

Geneva, May 13 (Associated Press).—Whether Premier Mussolini and Italy will resign from the League of Nations and join forces with Chancellor Hitler and Germany worried diplomats today.

Well-informed Italians said the possibility Italy would resign from the League, following the example of Germany, should not be excluded.

Such an act, political observers surmised, would mean the political alignment of Europe in two camps, and might even bring about a re-suscitation of the pre-war "Triple Alliance" amongst Germany, Italy and the former Austro-Hungarian Empire.

HUNGARY AND AUSTRIA

Hungarian spokesmen said they anticipated that if Mussolini breaks with the League, he will seek to influence Hungary and Austria to do likewise.

Some Geneva diplomats, meanwhile, said they gathered from German newspapers' outspoken admiration for Dr. Hitler's Ethiopian conquest that Germany is beginning to find Italy "more interesting."

READY TO FIGHT

Rome, May 13 (Associated Press).—Premier Mussolini's Popolo d'Italia answered challenges of the new Roman empire today with a warning that "the Italian people created it with their blood, they will cultivate it with their labor and defend it against anyone with their arms."

The editorial in Dr. Duce's newspaper coincided with the return from Geneva of Baron Pompeo Aloisi, who was recalled yesterday as Italy laid before the League of Nations implicitly the choice of accepting the Fascist empire or losing Italian membership.

"The Italian people," the editorial said, "ask themselves why the occupation by some powers of civilized and even independent countries should be considered legitimate while Italy's occupation of territories horribly depopulated by barbaric organization and slave trade should be illegitimate."

NON-PARTICIPATION POLICY

Premier Mussolini's summons to Baron Pompeo Aloisi to come home was interpreted in informed circles as a warning that Geneva must recognize Italy's conquest of Ethiopia if its delegates are to appear again about the Council table.

The Italian attitude for the present was described as one of "non-participation" in League activities.

Authoritative interpreters of Dr. Duce's action in withdrawing his delegation from Geneva yesterday as the Council adopted a new resolution of virtual condemnation of Italian aggression in East Africa emphasized the "provisional" character of the step.

These sources contended the League still had a chance to redeem itself in Italian eyes by denying a hearing to the Ethiopian delegate, Wolde Mariam, whom Italy regarded now as just one of its "colonial subjects."

Geneva, May 13.—The sudden departure of the Italian-League delegation from Geneva yesterday was interpreted in some League quarters today as meaning a complete withdrawal of Italy from Geneva could be expected soon.

Some argued it would be a good thing if Italy quit the League and others even urged it was high time to expel the adjudged aggressor—a procedure possible under Article XVI of the League covenant.

Still others contended Europe's real concern was Reichsführer Hitler and that as long as there was any chance of gaining Italy's co-operation against Germany, it would be foolish to discourage this by enforcing sanctions for the Ethiopian conquest.

Albertans Complete Refunding Scheme

Early Announcement on Compulsory Plan Expected; Security For "Consols" Desired, Says Aberhart

Edmonton, May 13.—Announcement of a plan under which Alberta's entire funded public debt would be refunded was believed near today as Premier Aberhart and his cabinet went into session with the compulsory conversion scheme on the agenda.

Mr. Aberhart declared the only delay now was being occasioned by his government's efforts to arrange some means by which additional security could be given the refunding issues, most of which are expected to be in the form of "Permanent provincial stock" similar to perpetual consols.

LOAN COUNCIL REJECTED

"For psychological reasons only, we would like to have the Dominion guarantee the issues which will replace present bonds," the Premier said, "but we cannot accept agreement to the loan council as a requirement."

"The interest payments will be assured; payment of interest will always be our first consideration, because we realize many people are wholly dependent on interest. Under our consols plan there will be no question of maturities, because they will never mature."

"But the market value of the stock will be very important to investors, we realize. Hence we are endeavoring to arrange a plan which would create a demand for this stock."

rock; Robert Patterson, Berkeley, Cal., and John Mason, San Francisco.

The fire started suddenly, unexpectedly at the height of gaiety during the torch dance of Betty Blossom, headline performer of the club.

DRAPERIES CAUGHT FIRE

As she danced about a darkened, low ceilinged room with a torch in each hand, she kicked one of the torches so that its flames leapt up to the flimsy draperies which covered the entire room.

Flames swept quickly through the decorations. Horror swept the crowd. Some collapsed on the dance floor. Others dived into dressing rooms or the ice box.

The flames were quickly smothered without spreading to other parts of the two-story building. Firemen at first thought everyone had escaped. They were spurred to action by the screams of escaped entertainers that others were still in the club.

Outstanding Tennis Stars Expected To Perform Here This Year

THE SPORTS MIRROR

By FRED SALLAWAY

IT WILL SOON BE "Derby Day" at Epsom Downs, England. The greatest of English classics will be run on May 27 for the 177th time. There is added interest in the race owing to the fact that thousands of dollars are distributed all over the world through the Irish Sweepstake on the event. Entries of Lord Astor, who never before has won the greatest of races, although three times, in 1922, 1923 and 1924 his colors ran second, hold the spotlight.

Without a great candidate of the calibre of the Aga Khan's Bahram last year and Lord Glanely's Colombo in 1934, the Derby's situation this year is peculiarly obscure, but through the confusion turf critics are pointing to two fine Manton-trained colts from Lord Astor's stables.

The current favorite for the Epsom classic, Lord Astor's Pay Up, forged to the front in the betting following his impressive victory in the first of the great classics, the Two Thousand Guineas at Newmarket. Earlier in the season he had made short work of numerous opponents in the Free Handicap over seven furlongs. He is a brown colt by the St. Leger winner Farway out of Book Debt.

Of Lord Astor's other candidates, Rhodes Scholar is something of a "dark horse," and appeals to those who stay by the old racing maxim, "Fourth in the Guineas, first in the Derby." But this fine colt, by Pharo out of Book Law, a winner of the St. Leger, has more than superstition behind him. At Newmarket he aroused tremendous interest in the paddock. In matter of looks he is all that his admirers claim. He is a rich bay, strong in frame, with very powerful forelegs and gaskins. He has perfectly sprung ribs and strong quarters. Rhodes Scholar ran only once as a two-year-old, when he was certainly not at his best. At the Epsom spring meeting he ran a close second to the Aga Khan's Taj Albar in a fine race, and in the Guineas he finished fourth.

The Derby has been a most unlucky race for the Manton stable. Not since Lemberg won in 1910 has the prize been secured for the famous Wiltshire stable, and many race-goers are convinced this is the year a Manton horse will click. The stable has seven colts left to race, including Raeburn and a third Astor entry, Double Remove, who ran one, two in the Column Produce Stakes. Raeburn, by Solaris out of Harpy, will be ridden in the classic by J. Marshall, who has already ridden a winner of the Derby in Trigo. Double Remove is by Feistad out of Quick Rise.

Followers of the Aga Khan's stables are now looking to his colt Mahound, who ran second to Pay Up by a short head in the Guineas. This grey, almost white son of Blenheim, winner of the Derby in 1930, ran an impressive race, although he is generally considered not to be in the class of his stablemate, Bahram, winner last year of the mythical "triple-crown"—the Guineas, the Derby and the St. Leger. Prior to the Guineas, however, his reputation as a stayer was poor, and the Derby is half a mile longer than the Guineas course at Newmarket.

One of the best-looking and best-bred of the Derby candidates is the bay colt, Bala Hissar, also from the stables of the Indian Prince. An early favorite, he has receded in the betting since his sluggish performance in the Guineas.

Other prominent contenders include the Duke of Marlborough's Monument, Lord Derby's St. Magnus, and Sir George Bullough's Dayton. Dayton ran ninth in the Guineas, for which he was the favorite, while both Monument and St. Magnus are by Sansovino, whose stock as a rule cannot act on firm ground. Each, however, is a very good-looking and well-grown colt with great possibilities.

JUVENILES MEET

A meeting of the executive of the Royal Juvenile Athletic Association will be held in the Colonist boardroom this evening at 7:30 o'clock. All executive members are requested to attend.

Miss Mary MacKenzie-Grieve won a class honors in the Uplands Golf Club women's monthly medal competition yesterday, finishing with a net 78. In the B section, Mrs. A. Woodcroft, with a net 74, led the field.

JAPANESE NET ACES MAY PLAY IN NORTHWEST

Negotiations Proceeding With Nippon Body For Appearance of Team

Riggs and Hunt From California

Victoria, with other tennis cities in the northwest circuit, may see leading racquet-wielders of Japan in action here this year, if negotiations now proceeding between officials in Seattle, Vancouver and this city are carried to a successful conclusion. The Japanese, prospective Davis Cup players, would be among the most outstanding performers scheduled to play on local courts this year, if the arrangements were carried through. There is also a possibility Bob Riggs, last year's Junior United States singles champion, and Joe Hunt, another coming U.S. ace, may appear with the Californians when they arrive for the British Columbia championships, it was understood.

Dr. E. W. Boak, leading tennis executive figure here, today said arrangements for the visit of the Nippon aces, as well as the two outstanding junior U.S. stars, were still indefinite, but there was ground for hopes they would add to the brilliance of the field which would go in quest of provincial honors here at the end of July.

Out of Davis Cup play owing to the unfortunate death of their first ranking figure, Sato, a year or two ago, and troubled to some extent by financial difficulties, the Japanese are understood to be making efforts to extend the sphere of their tennis activities.

They have been in touch with British Columbia leaders and have entered negotiations to send a collegiate team, men who are prospective Davis Cuppers should that country return to the first-class series, if satisfactory financial arrangements can be made.

Definite word on their plans was expected by Dr. Boak early next week. Regarding the Californians, Dr. Boak was equally noncommittal.

"We can't say anything definite just now, but when the Californians come up, we expect to see several ranking players with them," he said.

Gorge Vale Women Seek Club Honors

The qualifying round of the annual women's championship at the Gorge Vale Golf Club will be held on Saturday, and the first round must be played during the following week, at any time, up to and including Sunday, May 24.

Miss E. Talbot won the monthly medal held at the course last weekend.

ROLLER HOCKEY PLAY-OFF TIED

Oak Bay Lions and Black Hawks have one game apiece to their credit in the Juvenile Roller Hockey League play-off. Playing yesterday afternoon, the second game of the series, the Lions defeated the Hawks 3 to 1.

The end-of-the-first period saw the Hawks tied with one goal apiece. The second period was scoreless. In the final session, the Oak Bay Lions scored a pair and held their opponents to no score.

The third and final game will be played Saturday at 6 o'clock.

Pigeon Racing

J. W. Bland's Dominie carried off the honors in the recent race staged by the Victoria and District Racing Pigeon Club from Chahalis, Wash., over an air line of 123 miles.

A total of 100 birds, representing eleven lofts, competed in the event. Birds were liberated at 8 a.m. with an east wind blowing which resulted in low velocity.

J. W. Bland won the nominated pool.

STRANGE AS IT SEEMS

—By John Hix

THOMAS A. EDISON INVENTED THE TELEPHONE BEFORE ALEXANDER GRAHAM BELL AND DIDN'T KNOW IT!

5-13-36

New York City has about 650,000 buildings, and of these more than 450,000 are residential buildings for one of two families. In spite of the many skyscrapers in New York, the average height of all the buildings is less than five stories.

Strange as it seems, feathers serve birds best after they are dead. The feathers are alive only while they are growing, and after full growth is attained the opening at the base constricts to cut off the blood supply.

FEATHERS DIE—AND BECOME MOST USEFUL TO A BIRD AFTER THEY ARE DEAD—

When the telephone was announced to the world, Edison saw in it the same idea that he used in his sound analyzing machine. Later he found that his device would transmit the voice by electricity. Edison never claimed credit for his accidental invention of the telephone, readily admitting that he had no such thought in mind.

Schools Will Play Lacrosse

Ten Teams to Open Play in Revived Game in About Two Weeks

Spade work for the revival of lacrosse here advanced another step yesterday evening, when groups interested in the restoration to popularity of the Canadian sport announced school teams would probably open a special junior league in another two weeks.

Ten schools were reported ready to enter squads in the loop under old field game rules with twelve men to a side. The opening, it was understood, would follow closely the May 24 celebration.

Following the re-organization of lacrosse this year, it is hoped to establish an intermediate league next season with a senior division swinging into operation the following year in order to give the boys coming up through the schools a chance to stay with their game and attain a high standard.

Lampson Street, Victoria West, George Jay, Boys' Central, Oaklands, Sir James Douglas, South Park, North Ward, Quadra and Monterey Avenue were the schools reported prepared to play this year.

TROPHY AT STAKE

The teams will compete for the Gyro Club Cup, last up for competition in 1925. Games will be played in four ten-minute periods, starting at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Two sets of medals will be awarded the winners and runners-up by the Native Sons of British Columbia, who have been particularly active in starting the game again.

H. Bevan-Pritchard, W. H. Wilson and R. H. McInnes will represent the schools on an organization committee, which also includes R. Rickinson, W. Dinmore, W. C. Moresby and H. B. Sargison. That committee will draw up rules and regulations governing the league.

Another meeting will be held next Tuesday evening in the Colonist boardroom to make further arrangements.

THE BIG SIX

Bill Brubaker, the youngster whom they said would never play third for the Pittsburgh Pirates because he couldn't hit, had the best day of the lot in the Big Six yesterday. He hit a home run and two singles in five times up, while Bill Terry retained his lead by hitting safely once in four times. Frank Demaree of the Chicago Cubs got two safeties in four tries, and Rick Perrell and Lou Gehrig, the other members of the Big Six who played, got one apiece.

Wide-open Battle In King's Plate

Eyston After More Records

Bombardier Salt Flats, Utah, May 13.—Capt. George Eyston, London, was back with his "speed of the winds" tuning up for an assault on two score motor car speed-records.

On May 26 or thereabouts he will send his frog-nosed bullet roaring around the same ten-mile circuit track in which he shattered last fall virtually every endurance speed record in the books by the American Automobile Association. The records Eyston hopes to knock down range from 167 miles an hour for ten miles to 140 for twenty-four hours.

HISTORIC CANADIAN CLASSIC AT WOODBINE TRACK ON MAY 23 PROMISING KEEN DUEL: McLaughlin, Hatch and Seagram Stables Have Likely Entries

Toronto, May 13.—Possible King's Plate starters, gradually being eliminated by the rigors of spring training, have turned into the stretch leading toward the Canadian turf classic. Less than two weeks before the seventy-seventh running of the Plate, May 23, oldest continuously-run race on the continent, the winter book favorite, G. M. Hendrie's Glanford, is a doubtful starter.

Although the three-year-old colt, suffering from shelled hoofs, grew two new hoofs during the winter, stable hands are not enthusing over his chances in the Plate. They point to uncertain underpinning and a late spring that has retarded training.

The track at Hamilton Jockey Club where the Hendrie stable is quartered has been muddy and the son of Spinard-Calico has not been given a new to decide definitely whether he will be sent postward. Indications, however, tend to show he will not be among the eight or ten thoroughbreds that will make the field.

In event of Glanford's withdrawal turfmen watch morning trials for a new choice. Predictions are the race will develop into a battle between entries of Canada's leading breeders—R. S. McLaughlin of Oshtawa, H. C. Hatch of Toronto and E. F. Seagram of Waterloo.

The 1 1/2 mile race last year was won by a maiden filly, Seagram's Sally Fuller. Hatch's Chickpen was second and Gay Sympathy, another Seagram filly, third.

THE PURSE

The historic event will be run over Woodbine Race Track, overlooking Lake Ontario in Toronto's east end. The race, open to Ontario-bred, three-year-olds and up which have never won a race other than juvenile events, carries fifty guineas, donated by the King, and $6,000 added.

In an effort to retain the guineas, Seagram nominated four from which to choose one or two color-bearers. The quartet, being prepared at Waterloo, will be shipped shortly to Woodbine for final training.

Although Seagram, three-year-old brown gelding, pulled up lame before the running of the Coronation Stakes and Clarendon Plate, juvenile features, it was expected he would come through the grueling training period in peak form. The gelding left no doubt he could sprint. The unsexed son of Spey Pearl-Samoa won twice and finished second once in six trips to the post.

Should Seagram, however, decide to replace him, he has Thornhill, Khaki Fuller, Judge Pool and Shadow Waltz from which to pick. Thornhill has not faced the barrier and the others were not impressive during their juvenile campaigns.

EPICURE FANCIED

Chief threat to lift the prize was the sextette nominated by McLaughlin, 1934 winner W. P. Horometer. Heading the string is Epicurus, four-year-old chestnut colt. He was among the stable's three-horse entry last year. During the stretch run he came with a burst of speed that brought him near the leaders, but not enough to threaten.

Throughout the year he failed to win and remained eligible. The only one of the fifty-two thoroughbreds nominated that has been truly tried over a distance, he has proved he can hang on gamely in a drive. He will likely be McLaughlin's choice and might have a running mate in Silvis, Spearman, Ostris, Rondeller or Silent Sea.

Silent Sea, three-year-old filly by Marine Calm, won twice in four efforts. Spearman, out of Wishing Well, bought from Seagram when in foal to Gaffman, also won twice and was second three times, once behind Silent Sea in the Frances Memorial. McLaughlin's string, trained by Harry Cuddihy, has been stationed at Woodbine for some time.

Horsemen believed Hatch would send Sweepouch, granddaughter of Pennant, sire of Equipoise, into the race to stretch last year's second into victory. The three-year-old filly by Sweepouch-Mabouche has won more races than any other horse nominated. As a juvenile she finished first four times and was second on one occasion.

If Sweepouch survives the training period and an entry is decided upon, Penabud, chestnut filly by Buddy Bauer out of Penitent, would be the choice over Monseep, a gelding, and Lurea, another filly. Penabud started his career brilliantly, but slipped during the season and showed inclination to quit in the stretch.

Hendrie will not lack a color bearer, however, if Glanford is dropped. Storm blown a gelding by Swift and (Turn to Page 14, Col. 3)

MILLER WILL VACATE CLASS

Former Featherweight Champ Will Now Campaign Among Lightweights

Washington, May 13.—No longer able to make the featherweight limit without weakening himself, Freddie Miller plans to invade the lightweight class and would like a crack at champion Tony Canzonet.

Miller, who lost his National Boxing Association world featherweight crown in a torrid tussle Monday night with Petey Sarron, Syrian from Birmingham, Ala., was obliged to slice a pound and a quarter of weight off at the last minute, Monday, to trim down to 126 pounds.

This sapped his strength and left him too weary to make a final rally, he said.

Birmingham, Ala., May 13.—"Petey" Sarron, whose falling fists took him from an orphanage here to the world featherweight championship, wants to be a lawyer.

Too busy earning a living in the past to follow this ambition to fulfillment, Sarron still expected to become one. He defeated Freddie Miller at Washington Monday night for the featherweight championship. Sarron should not lack funds now to finance his law course.

Quiet and unassuming outside the ring, Sarron is an idol at the Boys' Club here, where his friend, Dave Evans, works to give underprivileged boys the counsel and aid he once gave Petey. Today the city fathers were to present Petey a key to the home town.

Salmonbellies Beaten Again

New Westminster Lacrosse Team Loses to Richmond 9 to 4

Vancouver May 13.—New Westminster Salmonbellies, their lineup sprinkled with former Orilla lacrosse stars, dropped a 9 to 4 decision to Richmond Farmers in an intercity league battle yesterday evening, their second straight defeat since the start of the 1936 season.

Headed by their flashy forward, Harry Cample, Richmond, the team which advanced to the Dominion finals last year only to be beaten by Orilla, were never headed after the first quarter.

So well loved was the Richmond defense department that the Royal City squad were held scoreless in the second quarter and allowed but one goal in each of the last two.

Cample scored five goals, while Bill Wilson was high scorer for the Salmonbellies, bagging two goals.

Horseshoe Tourney To Be Held May 25

A horseshoe pitching tournament will be staged on the grounds at the corner of Pandora Avenue and Blandford Street on Monday, May 25, it was decided at a recent meeting of the Greater Victoria Horseshoe Pitching Association.

The meet will be open to all-comers and a small entry fee will be charged non-members. Arthur Manson, 1054 Pandora Avenue, is the secretary and entries must be in his hands by May 21. Winners in their respective sections will receive prizes.

All pitchers intending to take part in this year's league fixtures are advised to forward their applications to Secretary Manson as soon as possible, so that the association may be in a position to draw up the schedule for the games.

"SHERIFF" PAXTON DIES

Montreal, May 13.—Don "Sheriff" Paxton, seventy-nine, treasurer and past president of the Ontario Hockey Association, died yesterday evening. Mr. Paxton came to Montreal from Whitby, Ont., his home town, about a year ago.

Leaders Are Given Rough Time In Major Baseball Leagues

Yanks, Red Sox And Cards All Suffer Defeats

Lowly St. Louis Browns Turn on First-named to Mark Up 7 to 0 Win

Brooklyn Lands On Dizzy Dean

The New York Yankees, leading the American League race, are wondering whether St. Louis Browns are going to throw a monkey wrench into the machinery again.

The Browns were the bane of the Yankees last year, turning very savage when the McCathymen were in the opposite dugout and then becoming just as docile when the Tigers happened to be the foe. They were a big help in Detroit's march to the flag.

The Browns, with thirteen straight defeats behind them, picked on the Yankees yesterday to break their losing streak, with a 7 to 0 shutout.

The St. Louis Browns were shut out, 5 to 0, by the Tigers and so the Yankees remained in the van of the race, but Manager Joe McCarthy hoped the Browns weren't going to renew an old habit.

Dizzy Dean was shelled with thirteen hits as the Brooklyn Dodgers beat the St. Louis Cardinals 5 to 2 with Ed Brandt winning his first game of the season.

Brandt held the Cards to four hits in eight innings. The game was marked by bickering between Manager Casey Stengel of the Dodgers and Leo Durocher of the Cards and they met behind the grandstand after the game to settle their differences.

WIN IN NINTH

For the second day in a row, the New York Giants won a ball game in the ninth inning. Travis Jackson hitting a clean single to score Mel Ott for a 5 to 4 win.

The Cincinnati Reds sent the Phillies into the National League cellar when they beat them 6 to 4. Darkness and an approaching thunder storm halted the Boston Bees-Pittsburgh Pirates game with the score 6 to 5 in the tenth inning.

Two other games were called on account of rain. Washington held a 3 to 0 lead over the Chicago White Sox when the rain came down in the third inning, and the game between the Philadelphia Athletics and the Cleveland Indians was called in the second with the Indians in the lead, 2 to 1.

COAST LEAGUE

The first perfect underdog's day of the season tightened up the Coast League baseball race today.

Dutch Leiber of the Los Angeles pulled down the curtain on the underdog's holiday yesterday evening by handing the not-quite-so-loyal Sacramento Senators their first shutout 4 to 0. Leiber allowed only four hits.

Steve Mesner, Los Angeles third baseman, illustrated the evils of chewing tobacco and gave Rip Russell an opportunity to get into the lineup and hit a home run. Mesner swallowed his cud and was taken to the hospital.

In the other night game Otho Nicholas helped the slipping Mission Reds down the second place Seattle club, 8 to 1, by keeping the Indians' hit well scattered and bashing out a double and a single to drive in two Red runs.

Portland's Beavers lost their first game under their new player-manager, Bill Sweeney, when San Diego put on a ninth inning rally to win, 6 to 5.

Wee Willie Wood lost his first game of the season when the San Francisco Seals drove him to the showers with a four-run ninth inning rally which cost the pace-setting Oakland ball club the game 9 to 7. Wood had won seven games.

Flares Wins At Newmarket

William Woodward's Colt Captures Stakes; Fearless Fox Is Second

Newmarket, England, May 13.—William Woodward's colt Flares today won the Newmarket Stakes, famed Derby test, over the one and a quarter-mile route.

Flares, starting at 100 to 7, finished a head in front of A. Gordon Smith's Fearless Fox. Third was Lord Carnarvon's His Grace, two lengths back of Fearless Fox.

Fearless Fox was quoted at 6 to 1 and His Grace at 7 to 1. Eight ran. All three placing horses are entered in the Derby, great open classic for three-year-olds to be run at Epsom Downs May 27. The Newmarket Stakes was first run in 1889. Lord Derby's Robbleigh won it last year. Flares is a bay colt by Gallant Fox-Flambee.

FAVORITES TAKE GOLF

Quarter-finals Reached in B.C. Women's Championship at Vancouver

Vancouver, May 13.—Favorites came through in the first day of match play in the British Columbia women's golf championship and the draw for today found eight of Vancouver's most prominent feminine shotmakers scheduled to meet.

Miss Marcia Moss, star of the Vancouver Golf and Country Club, who yesterday was forced to an extra hole before winning over Mrs. A. McAllister of Shaughnessy, was to meet Mrs. R. Gelliey of Jericho, while Miss Duff Stuart of Shaughnessy, was matched against Miss M. McNab, Point Grey.

Pate went against the Victoria entrants yesterday as two of them found themselves matched for play. In a fourth flight match, Mrs. Z. Huse, Colwood, eliminated her fellow townswoman, Mrs. H. R. Crowe, of Colwood, 4 and 3.

The other Victorian, Mrs. Philbrick, Oak Bay, beat Mrs. Vans McDonald, Shaughnessy, in yesterday's play, 5 and 3.

Miss Duff Stuart repeated her victory of ten days ago in defeating Mrs. Slocock, in the city's women's golf championship by putting her rival out of the first round of the tournament.

MISS DUFF TO WIN

Miss Duff Stuart was down at the turn but squared the match at the tenth, when Mrs. Slocock three-putted, and finished the round with a 3 and 2 victory.

Miss Margaret Wood of Quilchena, medalist Monday with an 85, advanced to the quarter-finals with a 3 and 2 win over Mrs. J. J. Mason of Shaughnessy.

Miss Moss was 1 up on the seventeenth, Mrs. McAllister squared the match on the eighteenth but lost when she took six strokes on the last hole, while Miss Moss reached the green with three perfect shots and finished the hole in five.

Second flight results: Mrs. A. Eadie, Quilchena, defeated Mrs. H. J. McCreery, Shaughnessy, 7 and 6.

Mrs. R. Benwick, West Point Grey, defeated Miss Ruth McLean, Shaughnessy, 6 and 5.

Mrs. R. B. Philbrick, Oak Bay, Victoria, defeated Mrs. J. Vans McDonald, Shaughnessy, 5 and 3.

Miss Lillian Boyd, Shaughnessy, defeated Mrs. C. E. Dawson Shaughnessy, 1 up.

Nearest he came to victory was in the Grey Stakes, an open event, finishing second to McLaughlin, United States-bred Abbot.

Others likely to start include H. R. Bain's Laffitt, T. S. Cochenour's Chic Gal, W. Thurner's Spey, Gold and J. E. Smallman's Ladymuch.

Several Victorians Returned to Positions in B.C. Association

Vancouver, May 13.—Entire slate of officers of the British Columbia Women's Golf Association were re-elected yesterday evening at the annual meeting.

Island representatives are: Island vice-president, Mrs. Allan B. Morkill, Victoria; assistant honorary secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Walter Parry, Victoria; chairman of the handicaps committee for the island, Mrs. B. R. Philbrick, Victoria; member of the rules committee, Mrs. A. B. Morkill.

It was decided that British Columbia should be represented in the interprovincial matches held at the Canadian championships. Ways and means will be decided later.

WOULD RESTRICT COAL IMPORTS

Canadian Press
Ottawa, May 13.—A plea for Nova Scotia coal miners was made yesterday in the House of Commons by Dr. D. J. Hartigan, Liberal, Cape Breton South, who urged the government to take steps to restrict use of imported coal and stimulate use of Canadian fuel.

Dr. Hartigan said 13,000,000 tons of coal were imported every year and coal miners of Nova Scotia were driven to the verge of starvation, obtaining as little as one day's work a week.

Canada's Oarsmen Are Real Threat

Promise to Make Strong Bid For World Championships at Olympic Games; Leander Eight and Argo Four and Single Are Impressive to Critics

By ELMER DULMAGE
Hamilton, May 13.—It will be a great gathering of the world's ranking eight-oared crews at Berlin's Olympic Games this summer and, from this distance, Coach Robert T. (Bob) Hunter of Hamilton Leanders believes six nations have a chance to win.

Canada is one of the six.

A broad survey of the pre-Olympic set-up reveals Canadian athletes are less likely to win in any other form of competition than rowing. The runners, jumpers, boxers, wrestlers, fencers, swimmers—all, they scarcely measure up to the oarsmen in this country.

There is always a chance that out of the track team will emerge at the last minute a Percy Williams or a Duncan McNaughton, Canada's sole track and field champions in the 1928 and 1932 games. But you cannot bet on this happening in 1936. You can, however, put a modest wager on the rowers.

They have strength in nearly every division. Hunter's Leanders, for instance, shape up as an eight quite likely to defeat all-comers, including the favored entries from the United States, New Zealand, England, Germany and Italy. It is a fact that none of these countries is more favored than Canada.

Toronto Argonauts Club has a four without covetous that is expected to win its way to Berlin with the Canadian team. Its a fine crew, fast and game and well-coached. Don Parke, Fred Mitchell, Bob Scott and Jim Russell make up the boatload that won three Henley titles in 1935.

Then young Chuck Campbell of Argo, Canadian and United States single sculls champion, is pretty certain to reach Berlin as North America's principal challenger for the Olympic championship won in 1928 and 1932 by Bobby Pearce of Australia, now of Hamilton. Campbell has a real chance.

OTHER COUNTRIES SHOW FORM

But there isn't a better Canadian bet than the eight from the Leander Club, which won easily at the Canadian Henley last summer. Among its victims was the New York Athletic Club crew, 1935 United States national champions.

"Now don't get excited about that day," advises Coach Hunter. "If the New York A.C. had the best eight in the United States it would be a different matter, but the college turn out the best crews over there. I was disappointed that the New York bunch didn't give us a better race last year, but I wasn't greatly set up by the result."

"From what I gather, either University of California or University of Washington will win the U.S. Olympic trials. California won the Olympic trials, California won the Olympic trials in 1928, beating Argonauts in a very close finish, and the Golden Bears won again in 1932, finishing a few feet ahead of Italy and Leanders."

"I think we have a chance to beat California this year, but it's interesting to see how European countries are preparing their efforts for the Berlin games."

"Germany is most anxious to win. Their crew is training each night over the Olympic course—has been for weeks. They row under arc lights, according to my information."

"Italy has a national crew for the second time. This eight is selected from the country's best men and a year in advance of the games and by Olympic time it is thoroughly welded into a unit. Italy placed second in 1932 and would have won except for bad steering in the last 100 yards."

"I hear the Cambridge crew isn't up to its usual standard and that England is likely to be represented by an eight from either the Leanders or Thames clubs. If the Leander crew wins the trials, we will probably find several Cambridge men in the boat."

"New Zealand is supposed to be ready with another great outfit, comparable to the one that won the British Empire Games race here in 1930. I understand this crew will take plenty of beating."

VETERANS IN GREAT STAND

Grove, Sorrell and Goslin Showing Way For Kids in Major Ball Leagues

Chicago, May 13.—Youth may be served eventually, but a few "old timers" in the American League are busy these days proving they still can teach the youngsters a trick or two.

Young, ambitious pitchers in the junior circuit can take lessons from that surprising veteran of Boston Red Sox, Bob (Lefty) Grove. The old fireball star has a record of five wins against one loss and leads the circuit in strikeouts with twenty-six.

Vic Sorrell, Detroit Tigers, is another—twisting "fanciest" making things jump. The "Baby Doll" yesterday beat Boston's powerhouse 5 to 0 to add his third win of the year against one loss.

George Blaeholder, Cleveland Indians, also has been around a long time, but he's unbeaten to date and has three games on the right side of his pitching ledger to lead the circuit.

Leon (Goose) Goslin, whose $50,000 single ended the world series last fall, has been in the league since 1921 but the way he's hitting—at a .348 clip—makes him look like an ambitious rookie determined to stick in his first year up. The "Gander from Salem" got two hits in four trips yesterday, one of them a home run.

Asst. Alec Robert Nelson, retired foreman, Shelburne Road, Strawberry Vale, has applied to the courts here for Canadian citizenship. He was born at Bohuslan, near Gottenburg, Sweden, came to Canada via Liverpool and through Quebec on the S.S. Martini in 1887, and has held his Canadian citizenship during all these years. He came to Victoria in 1912 to make his permanent home. He has been set down to appear for public hearing on his application before Judge Lammiman on June 13.

T. J. Goodlake, secretary, announced this morning that he was only waiting for the Nanaimo Automobile Club to compile a list of the hotels, cafes, garages and auto camps on the northern part of the island, and then the club would be able to print the 1936 pamphlet. These pamphlets have been very beneficial to tourists as they give the facilities that auto camps, hotels, cafes and garages offer on Vancouver Island. The pamphlet should be out early in June.

It is interesting to note at this time that there are close to 12,000 registered car owners in Greater Victoria, of this total 350 are members of the club. In the United States there are 25,000,000 car owners, of this total 600,000 are members of the A.A.A.

Another freak tulip with petals which are half leaves was found by Alan Peterson and Frank Morris in the home of David Hurn, 71 Wellington Street. David was helping his father clean up the garden when his two friends discovered the freak. Due to the number of leaf-petal freaks which have been found lately, horticulturists are of the opinion that they are probably due to breaking down of late flowering tulips.

The 160-foot flagpole, donated to the city by Mayo Bldg., reached Victoria today on C.N.R. cars and was ready for transfer to Beacon Hill where it will tower atop the highest rise.

The timber was scheduled to be removed from the cars this afternoon, but whether or not it would be conveyed immediately to the hill was unknown.

Health Scheme To Move Ahead

Noted Public Health Authority Says B.C. Plan "Extremely Sound"

Plans were made by Hon. O. M. Weir, Provincial Secretary, today to move right ahead with the organization of British Columbia's health insurance scheme when the new legislation goes into effect on May 18. The formal proclamation putting it into operation has been signed by the Lieutenant-Governor.

While not divulging details as yet, Dr. Weir today made public the opinions of one of the continent's leading health authorities on the British Columbia scheme.

"Dr. C. E. A. Winslow, public health authority of Yale University in acknowledging a copy of the British Columbia Health Insurance Act, stated that the bill was 'an extremely sound and valuable plan.'"

Dr. Winslow is one of the greatest public health authorities in the United States, and has been connected with almost every important study in the field of medical economics which has been made in the United States in recent years. He was chairman of the executive of the committee on the Costs of Medical Care, in a past-president of the American Public Health Association, was chairman of the New York State Commission on Ventilation, and has held numerous other positions of responsibility. He is the author of several authoritative books in the health field.

"Dr. Winslow is a believer in health insurance. He realizes that a measure of this nature has strong preventive features that prove economical in the long run. He also appreciates the fact that a law such as the British Columbia Health Insurance Act will not increase the cost of health services on the whole, but distribute existing costs in a more equitable manner."

The ten-year term imposed by Mr. Justice Murphy on Lou S. Barrack, convicted white slaver of Vancouver, has been cut by the court of appeal to five years.

The reduction was made late Tuesday by a majority decision of the court, with Justices Martin, Macdonald and McQuarrie favoring five years, while Chief Justice Macdonald said he would cut it to two years.

This five-year term is to start from the conclusion of another term of one year he is now serving.

The reduction was announced after C. L. MacAlpine, counsel for Barrack, had argued for a new trial, which was denied. He based his argument on the fact that the prosecution case was based on the evidence of two girls, who testified they had paid a share of the fees to the madame of the establishment, who had turned part of the money to Barrack. This, it was argued, constituted them as accomplices, invalidating their evidence.

Dugald Donaghy, K.C., and E. A. Dickie for the prosecution, opposed Mr. MacAlpine's contention, arguing that the girls were victims of the white slaver.

The appeal in an automobile damage case from Vancouver, Laing vs. Galloway, is today being argued by A. D. Macfarlane, K.C., and C. L. MacAlpine.

The appeals of Charles Russell and Earl Dunbar, sentenced to be hanged for the shooting of William Hobbs, bank clerk, last January 8, have been set over until the May 19 sitting of the court of appeal in Vancouver.

Painfully Hurt While at Work

William Taylor, 562 Dupplin Road, suffered a painful injury to his arm this morning while working at the Douglas Fuel Company yard on Whittier Avenue, Saanich.

Mr. Taylor was struck on the inside joint of the elbow by a block of wood which ripped a large gash in his arm, rupturing the arteries and causing profuse bleeding. He was operating a circular saw when the accident happened, the block flying away from the saw.

He was rushed to city police headquarters where the flow of blood was stopped by Sgt. D. McPherson and other men who attended after which he was taken by the police to the Jubilee Hospital, where Dr. J. W. Lennox attended him.

Protests Move To Change Names

To fight the move to change some of the lake, mountain and other geographical names in the Forbidden Plateau and park areas up the island, Capt. H. Beadnell of the Courtenay Board of Trade has come to Victoria. He is taking the whole issue of names up with government officials at the Parliament Buildings.

He explained that many of the names which have been given in the Forbidden Plateau area have a local significance, associated either with a discoverer or a person who has interested himself in the development of the area. To change such names now, substituting some outside or synthetic names, he protested, would be strongly resented. He said the only reason for the proposed changes was that government geographers had found the same names already bestowed in other parts of the province and that he replied that the places bearing the same names were so far apart that there was no conflict.

Appeal Justices Reduce Lou Barrack's Term From Ten to Five Years

SOCIAL CREDIT SOLUTION TOLD

Paradox of Poverty and Wealth Pointed Out By Mrs. E. M. Brooks

The way offered by the Douglas Social Credit system out of the paradoxical state of affairs in which men lived stunted lives in poverty side by side with great actual and potential wealth was pointed to last night by Mrs. Edith M. Brooks, Vancouver, speaking at the Memorial Hall.

Major A. H. Jukes presided at the meeting, held under the auspices of the Victoria branch of Douglas Social Credit, British Columbia section.

Mrs. Brooks said her reason for appearing on a platform in support of Social Credit was her belief that that system would bring beauty into the lives of people and prevent the destruction of the essentials of life, especially foodstuffs.

Mrs. Brooks quoted from the pamphlet of Dean Hewlett Johnson of Canterbury:

"In his analysis, Major Douglas distinguishes two streams flowing out into the world: a stream of goods, with prices marked upon them, and a stream of money to claim those goods. These streams do not exactly correspond as they should. The rates of flow are different. The rate at which money prices are generated is always in excess of the rate at which money tickets are distributed."

"Take, as a concrete instance of this differing of flow the operations of a modern motor car factory. Three things are distributed from it—motor cars, prices and purchasing power. If we examine the rate at which price tickets on the cars issuing from the works are generated, and compare them with the rate at which money tokens are also generated and placed in the pockets of employees and dividend holders, we discover that the rates are never equal."

"We further discover they never can be. For the wages, salaries and dividends, which are distributed as purchasing power must of necessity be charged into the price of the car. Other charges must enter also into the price—raw materials and overhead, depreciation, bank interest and repayment of bank loan."

The financial aspect of the Douglas system was fully analyzed by Mrs. Brooks, especially in its relation to the banking system.

Under Social Credit, she said, maximum production would be possible with a proper system of distribution of national wealth, and the surplus production would be distributed to the advantage of the individual through a national dividend scheme.

She referred to these dividends as "tickets to such things as are now destroyed, and could be indefinitely increased."

Following Mrs. Brooks' address the meeting was thrown open for questions, which were answered by the speaker and the chairman. The attendance was about sixty-five.

Through an error in the source of information it was erroneously reported yesterday that Charles Cooper held a perfect hand of thirteen spades in a bridge game. The hand was held by Jack Jones, his partner.

ASK CULVERT BE DEEPENED

City Makes Request to Oak Bay to Improve Bowker Creek Grade

Delegates from Oak Bay, after a conference with city officials on the Bowker Creek project, returned to their municipality today with a request from Victoria to deepen the Cadboro Bay Road culvert, near the intersection of Foul Bay Road, by three feet six inches.

The action was sought by the city in order to allow a steeper grade in Victoria which would give water a speedier run-off from the low-lying Shelburne Street area. The suggestion was advanced that Oak Bay carry the lower grade through to the Hampshire Road culvert to maintain the slope.

"We're willing to co-operate, but we must go back to the council and determine exactly what the costs of the work would be," Reeve R. B. Taylor said, following the meeting.

In addition to the Reeve, Oak Bay was represented by Councillors R. H. Angus and W. White and R. F. Blandy.

Mayor Leeming and Aldermen Luney, Hawkins and McGavin and the city solicitor, H. S. Pringle, represented Victoria at the meeting.

Lay Association Elects Leaders

Vancouver, May 13.—Dr. M. G. Archibald of Kamloops was elected president of the Lay Association of the United Church of Canada at the British Columbia conference here yesterday evening. He succeeds W. A. Gleason of Vancouver.

Vice-presidents elected were: Oscar Lundell, Vancouver Presbytery; Prof. E. J. Parr, Victoria Presbytery; D. W. Welch of Milner, New Westminster Presbytery; F. C. Naughton of Oliver, Kamloops-Okanagan Presbytery; E. W. Somers of Nelson, Kootenay Presbytery; Mrs. C. C. Reid of Prince George, Cariboo Presbytery; and Dr. O. Large of Prince Rupert, Prince Rupert Presbytery. P. H. Fullerton of Vancouver was elected secretary.

A resolution of sympathy with the family of the late Robert J. Cromie and appreciation of Mr. Cromie's work in British Columbia was passed by a standing vote. Silent tribute was also paid to the memory of Capt. P. R. Wright, J. G. French, James Black and N. A. Cull, members of the association who died during the year.

U.S. AND FRANCE LOWER TARIFFS

Washington, May 13.—An international exchange, involving outright tariff cuts by the United States and a partial lifting by France of restrictions against United States goods, was revealed yesterday through publication of the newly-announced Franco-American Reciprocal Trade Pact.

The agreement, marking the first commercial contractual relationship between the two countries in more than a century, was signed on May 6, but its details were withheld until yesterday.

"We've just caught a woman shop-lifting," "What has she taken?" asked the manager. "Fifty yards of elastic," "Then tell her she's in for a long stretch," replied the manager.

POPULAR STARS AT THE CAPITOL

Margaret Sullivan and Henry Fonda are starred in "The Moon's Our Home," an adaptation of a Faith Baldwin story, which is now at the Capitol Theatre.

Alberta Road Grant $400,000

"Paltry Sum" From Dominion, Says Aberhart; B.C. Is Negotiating

Edmonton, May 13.—Grant of "only a paltry $400,000" from the federal government to Alberta for construction of highways as relief work projects was declared by Premier Aberhart to be "practically no help at all to us."

With this he combined his first comment on the recent increase of 2 per cent in the federal sales tax.

"That additional 2 per cent means the Dominion is taking an estimated $750,000 more per year out of Alberta," he said. "We actually lose $350,000 there."

"Yes the Dominion announced previously that it was undertaking a programme to relieve unemployment. 'How are we going to relieve unemployment and provide relief for our citizens under these terms?'

Mr. Aberhart's comment on the federal government came as Hon. W. A. Fallow, Minister of Public Works, arrived back from Ottawa and reported officially to the Premier Alberta would get only $400,000 from the Dominion for highway projects, instead of the dollar-for-dollar with the province's own budgeted fund of $542,000, plus a grant for new market roads which had been estimated at $1,000,000.

"When Mr. Fallow got to Ottawa by the Dominion's invitation, he found the whole thing had been settled before he arrived," Mr. Aberhart said. "He might just as well have been saved the trip."

BY SOCIAL CREDIT? Questioned as to whether the federal government's refusal to allot to Alberta share of the $1,500,000 apportioned for roads into northern mineral areas would wreck plans to construct a highway from McMurray, Alta., to Goldfields, Sask., Mr. Fallow stated:

"It means we won't get help from the Dominion, probably," and repeated: "But maybe we won't need money."

Mr. Fallow said he had been told in Ottawa that Ontario, Quebec and maybe British Columbia would need all of $1,500,000 apportioned for roads in northern mineral development.

NO FINAL AGREEMENTS Ottawa, May 13.—According to Hon. Norman Rogers, Dominion Minister of Labor, "no final agreement for relief works has been concluded with any province."

The minister made the statement when shown an Edmonton dispatch quoting Premier Aberhart of Alberta as stating that province would receive "only a paltry $400,000" from the Dominion Government for relief work projects.

As to the statement that Hon. W. A. Fallow, Minister of Public Works, had an appointment in Ottawa this morning with Hon. Norman Rogers, Federal Minister of Labor, to settle the question of federal aid for road work in British Columbia. No indication has been given so far as to the size of the programme.

PLAZA THEATRE Edward G. Robinson, Miriam Hopkins and Joel McCrea give a splendid portrayal of the pioneer characters in "Barbary Coast," now showing at the Plaza Theatre.

The story deals with the early and romantic days of the establishment of what is now one of the Pacific Coast's busiest cities.

DOMINION THEATRE "The Prisoner of Shark Island" is the title of the picture now at the Dominion Theatre. It's hero is a gaunt figure who looms out of the pages of American history.

Warner Baxter plays the leading role in the story, which was adapted from the true historical account by Munnally Johnson.

Margaret Sullivan and Henry Fonda Star in "The Moon's Our Home"

Margaret Sullivan is seen in one of her best roles in "The Moon's Our Home," an amusing screen farce which opened today at the Capitol Theatre.

Without ever having met, both of these world famous personalities have taken an instinctive and inherent dislike to each other; he for the perfume she endorses which she calls him; she for the "trashy" books he writes. The mere mention of either's name in the presence of the other is a cue for an expression of disgust and a derogatory epithet. But they are unceremoniously thrown into each other's arms, fall desperately in love without knowing their real identities, and marry.

Margaret showers herself, on her wedding night, with the hated perfume, and Fonda, as the explorer-author-husband, becomes deathly sick. He orders her to remove the odor from her person. She becomes ill with several operations, and starts throwing things. In a huff, she packs up and walks out on her bridegroom.

They both relent and go on a frantic search for each other. But all they know are their real names—they are still unaware of the names under which they are known to the world—and are unsuccessful in their search. How they are eventually brought together by Margaret's equally fiery-tempered grandmother, and the reconciliation is brought about, makes hilarious screen comedy-romance.

Fine Costumes For "Coppelia"

The costumes for Leo Delibes' ballet-opera, "Coppelia," to be presented by the Victoria Civic Opera Association, with Dorothy Wilson as ballet-mistress at the Royal Victoria Theatre on May 22 and 23, are being designed and created by Vivienne Combe of the Russian Ballet School.

No effort is being spared in any department to make this ambitious undertaking an outstanding success. While several operas have been presented, in which more or less intricate ballets appear, this is the first time an entire ballet has been given by Victoria dancers and musicians.

HERE FRIDAY Margaret Sullivan in "NEXT TIME WE LOVE"

EMPIRE THEATRE May Robson appears in a delightful humorous role in "Three Kids and a Queen," now showing at the Columbia Theatre.

In the story, Miss Robson, rendered unconscious in an accident, is spirited to the basement home of Henry Arnette and his four children, and rumors of her kidnapping are finally succeeded by an actual "snatch" of the wealthy old lady, with dramatic situations following in swift succession. Eventually she discovers happiness where she least expected to find it.

EMPIRE THEATRE The Lee Jaxon Players made their debut this week at the Empire Theatre with "Eliminating Jane," a clever rural comedy drama.

Mr. Jaxon has assembled a splendid cast, the company's forthcoming productions, which include Leland Jaxon, Miss Rose Smith, Rita Roberts, Margaret Barry, Gardner Land and Rommy Wiggins.

The motion attraction stars the English comedian, Will Hay, in "Boys Will Be Boys."

TRAINING IN AUTO DRIVING Toronto, May 13. (Canadian Press).—A course in automobile driving in Toronto secondary schools is advocated by Dr. C. E. Golding, superintendent of schools. The board of the Amherstburg High School has made application for permission to conduct such a course, he said. In Port Arthur all students in the general technical course receive instruction in "safety first driving." In Regina an attempt will be made soon to teach motor car driving.

Standardizing Rectors' Salaries Anglican Synod of New Westminster Moves in That Direction

Canadian Press Vancouver, May 13.—Delegates to the forty-sixth annual meeting of the Anglican Synod of the Diocese of New Westminster met today to elect a committee which will prepare a canon standardizing, according to a graded scale, stipends for the clergy of the diocese, the stipends to be paid from the common treasury.

A resolution passed at yesterday evening's sitting called for election of the committee, which will consist of the diocesan, the archdeacon, the rural dean, the diocesan treasurer and four clergy and four laymen of the diocese.

The canon will be reported at the next session of the synod.

Yesterday's sessions discussed re-

BOND MARKET ON EVEN KEEL

Associated Press.
New York, May 13.—The bond market slid along on an even keel today with small gains and losses about evenly divided.

The small activity in French 7½s which were up a trifle, was taken as an indication recent uneasiness over fears of devaluation of the franc has momentarily slid into the background as a market factor.

Ten Chief Reasons for Failure of Marriage

Says No Judgment Is Used in Picking Mates

THE TEN CHIEF REASONS why marriage is so often a failure are these: First. Men and women use no judgment in selecting their mates. If people gave as much thought and intelligence to picking out their husbands and wives as they do to picking out their automobiles, virtually every marriage would be happy. But they don't. They marry on a hunch, without ever taking the trouble to find out whether those with whom they are undertaking to spend the remainder of their lives have a single qualification for making the kind of wives and husbands they want and need.

Second. They marry before they can afford it. It is sad, but true, that even marriage has to be adequately financed in order to make a go of it. When a couple who have been accustomed to dining on flint misgives to come down to cheese and crackers and shabbiness, they begin to bite and scratch instead of kiss, and love lams it for the window.

Third. They do not even try to make a success of their marriages. Most husbands and wives seem to think it is just chance the way a marriage turns out and that they have nothing to do with the matter, so they just let nature take its course. They trust to luck and not to pluck and when the cards run against them they weep on their bargains.

Fourth. They are not willing to pay the price. Marriage costs dearly in sacrifices, in adjusting oneself to another, in giving up one's old habits and amusements, and husbands and wives balk at doing it. The man wants to be married, yet have all the privileges of a bachelor. He wants to spend his money on himself and philander a bit. The woman wants all the perquisites of a wife, but she doesn't want to be tied down to home and babies. So they fret and quarrel like peevish children who want to eat the cake and have it, too.

Fifth. In-law. Any in-law in the house of a newly-married couple is like a stick of dynamite under the doorstep. Interfering mothers-in-law, bossy mothers-in-law, jealous mothers-in-law who are always trying to see that their precious children are not imposed on by the villains they have been inveigled into marrying will wreck any marriage that is not absolutely fool-proof.

Sixth. Selfishness. Husbands and wives each trying to get the best of everything for himself or herself, and to dominate the home. Husbands so anxious to see that their wives do their full duty to them that they don't consider whether they are doing their duty to their wives or not. Wives so concerned that the men they are married to shall be good husbands that they don't feel it necessary to be good wives themselves.

Seventh. Children. In many families the alienation of the husband's affections begins with the advent of the first baby. Husband has been living until Junior's birth. After that he is merely a cash register for Junior and his successors to punch. The woman who is all mother and who give all of their attention and tenderness and affection to their children end up by having no husband.

Eighth. Bad temper and bad manners. It is a curious thing that husbands and wives, even those who are fond of each other, treat each other worse than they do their deadliest enemies. No woman would show to any other woman the ugly side of her disposition that she displays constantly to her husband. Neither would treat any one else in the world with the lack of consideration that they show each other. The man who is suave and pleasant to all but his wife and who is all amiability and sweetness to her acquaintances is a nagging scold to her family. The use of tact and diplomacy would make any marriage a success, but husbands and wives disdain to use it.

Ninth. Never trying to make life pleasant and interesting for the other. Never cultivating mutual interests. Never chumming up with each other. The man absorbing himself in his business. The woman absorbing herself in her children, her clubs, society. Each going a separate way until they have nothing in common. The husband never trying to jolly his wife and give her a good time. The wife never making things gay and peppy for the husband. Home so dull that they flee it to escape being bored to death.

Tenth. Lack of appreciation. The husband never telling his wife that he loves her and thinks her the greatest woman in the world. The wife never saying "thank you" for all her husband does for her, or telling him how much she admires him.

Uncle Wiggily's Party

By HOWARD R. GARIS

This was a big day in Baby Bunt's life. It was her birthday, and Uncle Wiggily had planned a party for her. How old was she? Well, about three. I can't tell you exactly, because she was so fat and so round, but it really didn't matter, for she was just the age when everything seemed the most fun.

So this afternoon at Uncle Wiggily's hollow stump building the animal boys and girls were gathered in Baby Bunt's honor. That means that Uncle Wiggily had made her as happy as possible. And wasn't she happy! She was dressed in a pink dress with blue ribbons on it, and everyone who came brought her a gift. Mostly good things, like candy, carrots and ice creamed lettuce leaves, and all the things that rabbits love.

And when they all sang "Happy Birthday to you, happy birthday to you, happy birthday to you, happy birthday to you!" she was so excited she hopped around the room six times.

"Oh, Uncle Wigg!" she exclaimed (for you remember she was just a little bit of baby talk) "I never had such a good time! And now may we play games?" "Anything you wish!" the gentleman rabbit declared, laughing. "This is your day! What game would you like to play?"

PLAY HIDE AND SEEK. "Hide and seek!" Baby Bunt said. "And I'll be it!" The rest of the animal children clapped loudly. Little Buntball, the squirrel boy, cried: "I know where I'm going to hide!" "Well, don't tell her!" Pettie Bow Wow, the dog boy, chuckled. "Or she'll know where to look! Are you ready, Baby Bunt?"

"She has to count up to a hundred by tens!" Arabella Chick, the hen girl, declared. "Can you do that, Baby Bunt?" "Of course!" the rabbit tot answered proudly, for she really was very smart. She hid her head and began to count. "Ten, twenty, thirty, forty, fifty, sixty, seventy, eighty, ninety..."

"One hundred," said a voice no one there had ever heard before. "I hope you don't mind!" "Well, that was a surprise! Baby Bunt turned around and there, in the doorway, was a cute little honey bear, with his hat in his paw, and bowing very politely. The rest of the animal children came out from their hiding places. Uncle Wiggily was as surprised as any of them, and he asked in a kind voice:

"Who are you, please? Did you come because Baby Bunt was having a party?" "The honey bear bowed again. "Baby Bunt? Party?" he said in a puzzled tone. "I'm very sorry, but I didn't know there was a party. You have to have invitations to parties. I haven't got one. Perhaps I'd better get one!"

LITTLE BEAR INVITED. "No, indeed!" Uncle Wiggily cried quickly. "You're invited right now!" And all the animal children shouted: "You're invited!" Because that honey bear was certainly a cute little fellow. They wanted him to stay. And it was just as there for suddenly Ploppy Twisttail, the pig boy, ran in and said: "My brother Curly is caught in a hollow tree and can't get out! He was hiding there. And now he's stuck!"

"I'll fix that," the honey bear declared. "I know all about hollow trees—that's where I find honey!" So Ploppy showed him where Curly was stuck, and the bear squeezed in and pushed Curly out as easy as easy. He was clever bear, all right. There he comes, everyone wanted to know his name and where he came from, and he said: "My name is Jiggs Fitzgibbon. As to where I came from—that's a strange story! A very strange story! May I have something to eat before I tell it?"

And now we'll give Jiggs a chance to eat, and we'll go to bed and sleep tight so that tomorrow night, if the telephone doesn't wiggle and send funny messages through the radio, we'll hear about Uncle Wiggily's party.

HOROSCOPE

"The stars incline, but do not compel"

THURSDAY, MAY 14, 1936

Adverse planetary aspects are active today, according to astrology. Under this way both men and women are liable to quarrel and easily provoked to serious misunderstandings.

In the morning hours labor is subject to first-rate influences which promise advancement in wages and steady work. Farmers should profit this year, when food prices will soar.

This is a most threatening day for those who apply for rewards of any sort. Promotions or increased salaries need not be viewed at this time.

Attention is called to the prevalence of selfishness and war between men and women that persons in positions of importance are seldom grateful. Political workers should take note of this human weakness.

Ancient lore found for aspects approximately those of this date give promise of first-rate fairs. The summer is to be marked by an extraordinary interest in outdoor pastimes.

The moon enters Pisces today, a sign that encourages reticence and the soft of imagination that sports persons to sudden action. Gain is promised by travel as well as everyday industry.

Visits and intrigues are to be widespread in the coming summer, when nations will undergo a remarkable change. The story which encourage co-operation in place of individualism certainly appears to be governmental upheavals in Europe and Asia.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of a year of prosperity in business and financial matters. Difficulties which include disputes with associates, fires also are threatened.

Children born on this day probably will be natural leaders. Subjects of this sign usually are independent, progressive and successful.

Robert Owen, English social reformer, was born on this day, 1771. Others who have celebrated it as a birthday include Timothy D. Smith, one-time president of Yale University, 1913; James Donald Cameron, statesman, 1853; and Alva Adams, one-time governor of Colorado, 1848.

Suggestion Dionnes Reside in Quebec

Canadian Press

Quebec, May 13.—Suggestion the Dionne quintuplets and their parents be invited to come and reside in the province of Quebec was made in the Quebec Legislature by N. E. Lariviere, Action Libérale Nationale, Trois-Rivières. Presence of the sisters in Quebec would be an added tourist attraction, said the speaker, and would also serve to eliminate difficulties he claimed the Dionne family was experiencing in Ontario.

NEW CAPTAIN ON MONTROSE

Capt. Charles Richardson Brings Liner Montrose Up the St. Lawrence

Enjoying his first trip to the St. Lawrence as commander of a passenger liner, Capt. Charles Richardson, who is well-known to Canadians as former chief officer of the Duchess of Bedford and commander of the freighter Beaverford, is the new commander of the Canadian Pacific liner Montrose, and reached Montreal last week-end from Antwerp, Southampton and Cherbourg.

Capt. Richardson, who has had long service with the Allan Line and the Canadian Pacific Steamships, was appointed to the rank of commander in 1934, going to the Beaverford. He has since commanded the Beaverdale, and he received the command of the Montrose during the past winter season.

It was forty-two years ago that Capt. Richardson first went to sea as a young apprentice aboard the sailing ship Durham. After eight years "in sail" he moved to "steam"—really as the result of an accident. His ship, the barque Tranian, was wrecked off the Japanese coast and he was saved by a steamer. He stayed with steam ever since.

Capt. Richardson joined his present service in 1907 when he went to the Tunisian as fourth officer. He served in many Allan Line ships during the succeeding years, gaining steady promotions. After the war period, with the Allan Line, now merged in the Canadian Pacific liners, including the Metagama and the Montcalm. In 1928 he was appointed chief officer of the Duchess of Bedford, then in her first year of service, remaining as "chief" of his liner until 1934, when he became staff-captain of the Empress of Australia. Shortly after his appointment as staff-captain he received his first command, going to the Beaverford as master during that summer.

of the International Programme Division of the Reich Radio Department.
Mr. Erny Schwab of Cologne, Germany.
Eberhard v. d. Schwerin, correspondent for Essener Zeitung.
Murray Simon of London, now Captain Sinclair of London, editor of an airship magazine.
Mr. Straus of Lindenberg, Germany.
Mme. Tatiana, French journalist.
Major Charles C. Turner, British aeronautical expert.
A. Voldt of Koenigsberg, Germany.
Countess von Waldeck of Berlin, author.
Karl von Wiegand, correspondent for International News Service.
Professor A. Wagner of Dresden, Germany, steam turbine engineer.
K. Walthers of Vienna.
Sir Hubert Wilkins, correspondent for Universal Service.

Passengers said they acted on the air voyage much as passengers do on an ocean voyage. They played games and cards; dressed for dinner; gathered in the main lounge and dined; and in the ballroom foyer, Professor Wagner, a concert pianist, gave a recital one evening. He was the first to ever give such a concert in an airship.

A BUSY DAY AT OGDEN POINT PIERS

Three freighters kept the Ogden Point piers busy yesterday as they loaded Vancouver Island lumber for the United Kingdom, the United States and South Africa. In the foreground can be seen the Arganorm, while the first funnel is that of the Neptunian. The distant funnel belongs to the Wentworth, which was the first ship to call at Port Churchill, on Hudson Bay some years ago.

THREE SHIPS DOCK TODAY

President Grant, Borgestad and Modavia Keep Workers Busy at Rithet Piers

Yesterday the Ogden Point piers had three ships and today it was the turn of the Rithet piers to handle a similar number.

The President Grant of the American Mail Line, which docked at 6:45 o'clock this morning from the Orient, brought the biggest business to the port.

This ship had nearly 400 tons of general freight for discharge here, including a good consignment of raw silk for shipment across Canada to London.

Canadian and British mails were also taken off here, as well as several bags which went aboard the seaplane for Seattle.

Capt. H. B. Clarke, master of the President Grant, reported a good voyage across the Pacific from Yokohama.

The liner cleared for Seattle at 10:30 o'clock.

The freighter Borgestad came in this morning with some general cargo from ports along the Gulf of Mexico and the Modavia of the Donaldson Line arrived from the United Kingdom with 100 tons of general freight, including bananas from Central America.

The only ship at Ogden Point today was the Arganorm, loading 600,000 feet of lumber for the United Kingdom. The other two ships there yesterday, the Wentworth and the Neptunian, cleared yesterday evening.

These three ships were handled by King Brothers.

Captain Gets First Command

Capt. H. J. Ferguson, After Lengthy Service, Becomes Skipper of Beaverdale

A sea-going inventor, whose patents are in use on the seven seas, is now enjoying his first command, and reached Montreal in his liner last week-end. He is Capt. H. J. Ferguson, commander of the freighter Beaverdale.

Captain Ferguson has several inventions to his credit, the most notable of which is a lifeboat release apparatus.

The new skipper joined the Canadian Pacific fleet in July, 1907, as a fourth officer and has since served in twenty-four of the company's vessels in a steady progression of promotions.

He was promoted third officer in 1908, second in 1912, first in 1914, and chief officer in 1934. From November, 1914, to December, 1915, Captain Ferguson served in the British Navy, gaining the coveted Distinguished Service Cross in that service. Starting as fourth officer of the first Montrose, he served in the Michigan, Mount Royal, Lake Champlain, Montcalm, Montserrat, Montclair, Montlaurier, Melita, Bothwell, Brecon, Marloch, Balfour, Metagama, Duchess of Atholl, Duchess of Richmond, the new Montcalm, Empress of Japan, Duchess of Bedford, Duchess of York, and his first command, the Beaverdale.

Add Vessel To Cannery Fleet

Former Grace Liner Santa Olivia Will Operate Between Seattle and Alaska

Seattle, May 13.—Another former Grace liner will be added to the fleet of ships plying between Seattle and Alaska with the arrival in this port of the 5,544-ton Santa Olivia, purchased recently in New York by the firm of Libby, McNeill & Libby.

The Santa Olivia is the third carrier sold by Grace & Co. for service out of Seattle, the Santa Ana and Santa Elisa having joined the fleet of the Alaska Steamship Company under the names of Mount McKinley and Baranof.

The Santa Olivia is to become a unit of the cannery fleet of Libby, McNeill & Libby. She is manned by New York officers and crew.

Representatives of Libby, McNeill & Libby said today that the Santa Olivia will load a full cargo of cannery supplies and sail May 23 for the firm's salmon plants on Bristol Bay, Alaska. She will be commanded by Capt. W. Schach, formerly of the cannery ship Otago. The Santa Olivia will join the Otago, Gen. W. C. Gorgas and Libby Maine in the Seattle-Alaska salmon cannery trade.

DOWN THE GANGWAY

Travelers From Australia and Penang Come Ashore Here From President Grant—Fifty-seven in Seventh Day Adventist Party, on Way to Convention in San Francisco

By JIM NESBITT

—Perfect weather and a gay and large group of passengers made the latest voyage of the St. President Grant across the North Pacific, one long to be remembered by her 112 first and tourist class travelers.

Practically every cabin on the big liner was occupied this voyage. Fifty-seven of the passengers were members of the Seventh Day Adventists, on their way to attend a convention in San Francisco.

The others were business men and pleasure travelers. A number of Orient residents arrived on furlough, and will spend the summer months in the comparative coolness of North America and Europe, away from the heat and dryness and the exotic beauty, too, of countries in the Orient.

Two interesting couples came ashore from the President Grant here. They were Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Brush of Penang, and Mr. and Mrs. George E. Green from Brisbane, Australia. The Greens proceeded to Seattle this afternoon, but the Brushes will stay in Victoria until Sunday.

"We felt like a good long sea voyage, so we visited the Orient on the way," said Mr. and Mrs. Green when seen at the breakfast table in the President Grant's dining room this morning.

"We traveled from Australia to Singapore and Manila and boarded this ship at Hongkong," Mr. Green said. "We've never been in western Canada before, we're looking forward to our trip through the Canadian Rockies."

Mr. and Mrs. Green are booked to take passage on the Benarria from New York. They will return to America in the fall to sail from San Francisco for Australia.
